

Get me outta here!

'Prisoners' Sonja Northeast and Lee Farrell, both from Georgetown, were jailed last weekend at the Halton Regional Police's Jail-N-Bail, held at the Georgetown Market Place on Saturday. The two had been 'jailed' and were trying to convince shoppers to donate money to bail them out. A number of prominent Halton Hills citizens, including the owner of Sobeys in Acton, and even soccer teams, were also among those 'jailed' by Halton Police. The Jail-N-Bail was followed by 15 police and Ministry of Transportation officers getting their heads shaved. Donations from both events, totalling just over $18,000, will be donated to the Canadian Cancer Society.
