

A field hockey first as Jaguars blank Pearson

The Christ the King Jaguars chalked up the school's first field hockey victory by defeating Lester B. Pearson 1-0 on Monday. Last year, their first with a field hockey team, the Jaguars lost all six games and were outscored 25-1.

This season the Jaguars lost a pair of close 1-0 decisions to Nelson and Georgetown before beating Pearson to improve their record to 1-2.

After opening the season with a 1-0 win over Christ the King, Georgetown was edged 1-0 by Notre Dame. Notre Dame scored late in the opening half and despite some good scoring chances, Georgetown could not get the equalizer. The Rebels junior girls field hockey team lost 3-0 to Notre Dame in its season opener.

Junior football

John Leckie ran for six touchdowns and more than 200 yards to lead the Georgetown Rebels to a 52-0 win over Christ the King in the Halton season opener.

Leckie broke four runs of more than 40 yards in the Halton junior football game. Chris DeAngelis and Jody Stemberger also scored touchdowns. Dan Kearns had an interception for the Rebels.

Volleyball

The Acton Bearcats senior boys volleyball team opened the season with a 2-0 victory over Milton District Monday. The Bearcats came within one win of advancing to OFSAA last season after posting an 8-2 record.

Christ the King lost its opener 2-0 to Milton District. In junior volleyball play, Milton District defeated Acton 2-0 while Georgetown topped E.C. Drury 2-0.
