Walt Dixon (centre) was honoured Wednesday night with the presentation of the Marg Tanas Volunteer Award from Halton Hills Chamber of Commerce for his outstanding volunteer efforts over the years. On hand to make the presentation at the Chamber's volunteer recognition reception at Halton Hills Civic Centre were Chamber president Norm Paget and Halton Region Chair Joyce Savoline.

Sgt. Ray Bruce of Halton Regional Police Service had his bike odometer checked by Acting Inspector Marty Power as he began his Ride Against Crime Everywhere (R.A.C.E.) in aid of Crime Stoppers of Halton. The ride began Friday morning after a kick-off breakfast at Ares Restaurant, the first of three fund-raising events over the weekend, with a barbecue at the Safety Village in Oakville on Saturday, and a finale dinner in Burlington Sunday. Bruce had to complete 300 kms and cover all the areas in Halton Region. Early tallies indicate the event raised a minimum of $5,000.
