Cale Wooley, 13 of Georgetown was made an honorary member of the Steve Attard Racing team after winning a contest which the team held recently. Wooley joined the team at Belwood Lake for a day of racing, talking on the two way radio and helping with the other team members. The Attard Racing Team dropped by his home to deliver the news, present him with his own team shirt and also brought along the Maple Lodge Chicken to present Wooley with a gift package of a skateboard and gear and products from Maple Lodge, one of Attard's sponsors. On hand for the presentation were (from left) team members Mike Attard, Rob Ford, Steve Attard, Cale Wooley, the Maple Lodge Chicken, Cale's dad Kevin Wooley, Jeff Martin and Paul Attard. In front, Randy and Michelle Attard.

Classic form

Christi McQuaker of Schomberg, Ontario, cleared one of the jumps in Friday's Open Welcome Class, as she rode Ella to a third-place finish at the Oktoberfest Country Classic at Halton Place. The four-day event saw more than 100 competitors take part, with an unprecedented Grand Prix event on Sunday featuring 30 riders taking part. The event was a fund-raiser for the Cancer Assistance Services of Halton Hills (CASHH).

Encouraging Today's Youth

Nominations are now being accepted for the Ontario Junior Citizen of the Year Awards

Let's recognize the best of our young people. If you know a young person, aged 6 to 17, who is involved in worthwhile community service; a special person who is contributing while living with a limitation; a youth who has performed an act of heroism; or a "good kid" who shows a commitment to making life better for others, doing more than is normally expected of someone their age — help us recognize their contribution — nominate them today!

Nominations will be accepted until November 30.

Contact this newspaper or the Ontario Community Newspapers Association at www.ocna.org or 905-639-8720.
