

Georgetown churches 'unite' for Faith Matters conference

Dr. Cleo LaRue will be the guest speaker at the Georgetown area United churches's Faith Matters service on Sunday.

This special service takes place at the Georgetown District High School at 10 a.m.

Dr. Cleophus J. LaRue is the Princeton Seminary's Francis Landey Patton Associate Professor of Homiletics. He specializes in the theory and method of African American preaching, and is at present particularly interested in how the Christian church is declining in the North America, but growing in Latin America, Asia and Africa.

An ordained minister in the National Baptist Convention of America, LaRue received his M. Div. from Princeton in 1990, and returned to the Seminary as a professor because of the opportunity it provided to think openly and freely about the future of the church. As a professor, he enjoys teaching students from all over the world.

LaRue will be in town on Saturday, October 16 and Sunday, October 17 for Faith Matters: Share The Spirit, an event hosted by the United Churches of the Georgetown area.

At a day of workshops at St. Andrew's United Church on Saturday, LaRue will give a keynote address and contribute to ongoing discussion.

Saturday's lineup also features B.C.-based musician Linnea Good who will run a children's music workshop. She will introduce the kids to one of her new songs (not yet on CD) called, Cast your net. The kids will prepare this song for the joint worship service at the Georgetown District High School the next day. As well at Saturday kids' music workshop, Good plans to incorporate some musical activities that are "just plain kid-fun," as she calls it.

Good and her band Good Company can be seen in concert on Saturday night at St. Andrew's United Church at 89 Mountainview Rd. S. at 7:30 p.m. Tickets are $10 per adult; $5 per child.

Good, who has been called the "contemporary musical voice of the United Church of Canada," is up for a Western Canadian Music Award for Outstanding Children's Recording of the Year for her CD Swimmin' Like a Bird.

Earlier this year, Swimmin' Like a Bird was nominated for the national Vibe faith music

Awards for Children's Album of the Year. Swimmin' Like a Bird: Songs of Faith for Families was released in 2003 and features the talents of the spirited Port Wallis Children's Choir from Dartmouth, N.S.

The Sunday service at the high school features: LaRue, Good and plenty of local talent, a dynamic program for kids, and is free.

Star rises for hospital

The Order of Eastern Star, Peace Rose Chapter 315 recently donated $1,405 to William Osler Health Centre Foundation, as Immediate Past Matron Gloria Irving (left) and Immediate Past Patron Al Irving (right) presented the cheque to William Osler Health Centre Foundation chair Paul Armstrong. The funds were raised through various events and will be used to fund the purchase of medical equipment at Georgetown campus.
