German troupe to perform in Gala with local dancers

Halton Hills School of Dance will be hosting the Ballettakademie from Cologne Germany, who will be performing jointly in a gala performance Konzertdance in John Elliott Theatre on Friday, Oct. 22 at 7:30 p.m.

The Ballettakademie is visiting Georgetown for a week as part of a cultural exchange with the Halton Hills School of Dance whose group of senior students, The Halton Dancers will be visiting Cologne in November.

The German group will be visiting the National Ballet School, who will be performing some special classes for the group in their theatre in Toronto.

Both groups are part of the Royal Academy of Dance, a worldwide organization operating in 75 countries. Students in Ontario who study this method are now eligible to gain high school credits for their studies.

The program in John Elliott Theatre includes dances from The Nutcracker and Le Bayadère, as well as more modern dances. It is a rare occasion to have this high standard of dance performed locally. The show will be an exciting event and tickets are available at the theatre box office at 905-877-3700.

Dancers from Halton Hills School of Dance will be hosting the Ballettakademie, a group of German dancers, October 22 in a performance at John Elliott Theatre. Among those taking part are (from left) Erin Brennan, Alison Chiasson and Justine Marshall.
