

Strong fourth quarter leads Bearcats past Jaguars

After trailing for much of the game, the Acton Bearcats rallied in the fourth quarter to edge the Christ the King Jaguars 29-26 in Halton senior girls basketball play.

Acton trailed 13-9 at the half and narrowed the gap to 17-15 heading into the final quarter. Though the Jaguars capitalized on foul shots in the fourth quarter, the Bearcats improved their shooting, almost doubling their score with 14 points in the final eight minutes.

Nicole Gilbert controlled the offensive rebounds to lead the Bearcats with eight points. April Thomas had seven and Sara Doolan added six. Emma Carter led the Jaguars with seven points and Casey Ferguson had six.

The Bearcats are now 1-2 on the season. Erica Mills had six points in a 40-17 loss to Bishop Reding. Kaitlyn Andrews added four points for Acton. Wednesday, the Bearcats fell 69-23 to E.C. Drury. Doolan led Acton with 10 points and Andrews had four.

Also on Wednesday, the Georgetown Rebels topped Christ the King 36-17. Joanna Meltzer and J.J. Edwards each had eight points and Sherelle Sheppard had six for Georgetown. Carter led the Jaguars with nine points and Margareta Josipovic had six.

In junior basketball play, Georgetown defeated Christ the King 34-13. Georgetown's Trish Gauthier led all scorers with nine points while teammate Taylor McCabe had six. Christ the King's Kelly Laidlaw and Allison Hill each had four points.

Junior Football

The Georgetown Rebels were looking for their second straight win to open the junior boys football season but came up shy in a 14-13 loss to Burlington Central.

John Leckie ran for one touchdown and then threw for another, hitting Kyle Sutherland for a TD on a halfback option. Simon Treviranus kicked a 42-yard single for the Rebels' other point.

Junior Volleyball

Georgetown's junior volleyball team won its second straight game, downing Acton 25-17, 25-14. Acton fell to 0-2.

Field hockey

The Georgetown Rebels senior field hockey team shut out Burlington Central to win 1-0. The Rebels are tied for fourth place in the Halton Richardson Division with Aldershot.

The junior Rebels fell to 0-3, losing 2-0 to Aldershot.

Local duo play key role in Mississauga's championship season

The North Mississauga Under-11 Panthers won the South Region Soccer League Premier Division Cup Championship but the victory had a definite Halton Hills stamp on it.

Jacob Wintjes of Georgetown and Holden Vetro of Norval combined for the game's only goal as North Mississauga edged St. Catharines 1-0 in the championship game.

Wintjes took Vetro's pass and one-timed it past the St. Catharines goalie from just outside the 18-yard box for the goal that secured the title.

The Panthers also won the Premier Division league championship after going undefeated for the second season in a row. The team also won four tournaments this season, including the Brossard International in Montreal, where the team played up an age group.

Under-9 Eagles

Mallory Gratton scored late in the second half to give the Georgetown Boston Pizza Under-9 Girls Eagles a 1-0 victory over Newmarket and a place in the championship game at the Ontario Kewl Under-9 Soccer Championship.

The Eagles settled for the silver after falling 3-0 to Toronto in the final.

Georgetown won three games to reach the final, opening with a 5-0 victory over Toronto. Courtney Chambers scored a pair of goals and Gratton and Jenna McKenzie each had a goal and an assist. Caylee Brydie had the Eagles other goal. Rachel Inniss had two assists and Vanessa McCracken and Lindsay Fasken each had one.

Lindsay Kirby posted her second consecutive shutout as the Eagles blanked Richmond Hill 2-0 in the quarterfinals. Amanda Sipos scored the winning goal while Brydie added an insurance marker.

In the 1-0 semifinal victory, Chambers and Laura Mick assisted on Gratton's winning goal while

Jacob Wintjes, left, and Holden Vetro helped Mississauga win the South Region Soccer League Under-11 Premier Division championship

Hannah Gibson made some exceptional saves to earn the shutout.
