Silver anniversary

Ford of Canada dealer operations manager Kevin Jeffers (left) recently dropped by Concept Ford to present a memento celebrating the dealership's 25 years in business at the same location. On hand to accept the recognition were Concept Ford owner John Perl, (second from left) and staffers John Haden and Tim Elliott. Over the 25 years, the dealership, originally known as North Halton Motors when Perl purchased it, has grown from an eight-bay, one-car showroom facility with 11 employees, to its present 12-bay garage with 32 staff.

VON now booking flu clinics

Over the next few months, VON Halton will be providing influenza immunization clinics for the business community across Halton Region.

VON Halton's Flu Immunization Program offers convenient on-site clinics, competitively-priced flu vaccination and easy access to quality health information. To ensure a preferred clinic date, organizations are encouraged to book their clinic as soon as possible. Influenza Immunization clinics can be scheduled through the VON Halton office by calling 905-827-8800 ext. 2210.

"We're encouraged by the number of organizations taking a proactive approach in an effort to combat the flu before it strikes their office," said Nursing & Health Services manager Joanne Baxby. "Companies are seeing a reduction in employee absenteeism and a healthier work force through the flu season."

The convenience of employer-sponsored on-site clinics allows for an entire employee population to be immunized in little as a day or two with minimum disruption. Last year, VON Halton nurses administered over 4,300 flu shots through area businesses from October through January.
