

Acton Seniors Centre invites ghouls and goblins to Halloween dinner

There are still a few tickets left for our dinner at the Acton Seniors Recreation Centre, when we will be celebrating Halloween. There will be prizes for costumes, so start thinking about yours and join the fun. The dinner is on Friday, Oct. 29 at 6 p.m. For member the cost is $10 and for non-members, $13. A bargain! Anyone who had been to any of the events at the centre knows that the entertainment is always great and the food excellent. Thanks to Margaret and her crew.

The next trip to Casino Rama is on Wednesday, Oct. 27. Ruth says there are still a couple of tickets left. Please call her at 519-853-5124 if you would like to go. You must be at the centre for 8:30 a.m. The bus must leave at 8:45 a.m. promptly to get to Orillia for its scheduled appointment time. If you can't make it for some reason please phone Ruth.

The travel desk is planning a trip to see Hairspray in Toronto. This is a very popular lunch at the famous Town and Country Restaurant. Check the Travel Desk on more trips planned over the next few months any Monday or Friday morning or check out the flyers at the desk anytime.

The mooner at the Oct. 14 bid euchre was Doreen Malcolm and Edna Nellis. Remember a mooner is a perfect hand played alone.

The bridge group is still hoping for new people to sign up so they are able to start playing. Surely there are some players looking for ways to while away the winter months while enjoying the companionship.

A flu clinic is being held in the Acton community hall on Monday, Oct. 27, 1-7 p.m. There is no charge for this clinic and is available for everyone who is healthy. If you have a cold or are not feeling well you should avoid this clinic and wait for the next one.

Every Friday there is a lunch at the centre. On Oct. 22, it will be a Mystery Lunch for $6 and Oct. 29, it is Soup and Sandwich for $5 followed by bingo.

Quite a few people have expressed an interest in the wine making course (I am making a copy of the list so I will know who to visit in a few months time). Seriously there is still time to sign up, so come in and add your name to the sheet.

Still thinking about nice things to eat, the staff from Picadilly Foods is giving a food demonstration featuring some of their delicious Lebanese foods and of course, will feature a selection of their typical sweets. This takes place on Tuesday, Oct. 26 at 1:30 p.m. There will be a minimum charge for this event.

The winner of the 50/50 draw on Oct. 8 was Ena Gibson. Don't forget you have to sign in and put a loonie in the box to be eligible—simple isn't it? It would be a shame if your name came up and you hadn't participated.

I would like to thank Eileen for writing the column for me once again while I visited my daughter Theresa and my two granddaughters in Halifax. I had a lovely time and even the weather was beautiful most of the time and I go to visit place I hadn't seen for 20 years.
