Farmer finds pot plants

Eight marijuana plants, valued at approximately $8,000, were found growing in a cornfield by a farmer on Fifth Line late Friday or early Saturday.

Police officers removed the plants, filling two garbage bags, and continue to investigate.

Halton Police report an IBM laptop computer was stolen from a 1994 Cadillac parked in a Stockman Cr. driveway late Wednesday or early Thursday. The computer was found slightly damaged on a neighbour's lawn.

A CCM bicycle valued at $120, was stolen from the garage of a

Garnett Dr. home during a break and enter sometime between Wednesday and Saturday.

A Guelph man was charged after police responded to Nashville North Sunday night. Police report a man who had been escorted from the bar was screaming obscenities.

Charged with cause a disturbance is Douglas Alexander Mochrie, 22, of Hwy. 7. W.

Police report a 2001 Chevrolet Astro van, valued at $5,000, that had been stolen from Peel was found abandoned in the parking lot of a vacant building on Guelph St. Sunday.

Downtown merchants to get a scare on Saturday

Ghosts, goblins and ghoulies will be out in full force Saturday in both downtown Acton and Georgetown.

In Acton, children of all ages are invited to come dressed up to go trick or treating at participating merchants after the Haunted House Tour Saturday, from 1-4 p.m. at the Off The Wall Youth Centre (46 Mill Street East). In downtown Georgetown children 10 years old and under are invited to haunt Main Street, with downtown merchants supplying treats, between 11 a.m. and 1 p.m.

All children are registered and the Georgetown Business Improvement Area provides prizes to the winners in its costume competition.
