

Having a ball

Joan Burdette, right, of the William Osler Hospital Health Centre Foundation accepts a cheque for $13,000 from (from left) Shelley Phipps, Graeme Gobelle and Barb Phipps. The money was raised at the Annual Christmas Ball and was used to purchase medical equipment for the Georgetown campus. This year's ball will be held December 4 at North Halton Golf and Country Club. # Left Oakville centre Sunday Police searching for autistic man

Halton Regional Police Service is asking for the public's help in its intensive search for an autistic man who went missing from Oakville Sunday.

Randy Mogridge, 46, left Oakland Regional Centre on Bond St. at 7:50 p.m. and police say he can walk long distances without getting tired.

He may already be outside of Oakville, and even Halton Region.

Police ask the public to check their properties and be on the lookout for Mogridge along streets, roads, parks and plazas in their communities. Police say Mogridge has a fondness of bush land and areas containing bodies of water such as streams, rivers and lakes.

RANDY MOGRIDGE

The man suffers from autism, epilepsy, is bipolar and has the mental capacity of a young child. He is unable to speak and will yell, clap his hands and use hand signals to communicate.

He is unaware of his surroundings and has no concept of traffic, water or other hazards. Police say Mogridge will walk in a straight line at a brisk pace until he comes to a barrier at which point he will switch directions.

Mogridge is described as white, 5'3", 132 lbs, with a fair complexion and red blemishes on his lower face and nose. He was wearing a red t-shirt and blue casual pants.

Anyone who sees Mogridge should call Halton Police immediately at 905-878-5511 ext. 2210 or 2205.
