Cough syrup sample given to four-year-old trick-or-treater

The father of a four-year-old child who was trick-or-treating on Treanor Cr. Sunday night reports that someone put a Benylin cough syrup sample in his child's bag.

Halton Police ask any other parents whose children received a similar sample in their trick-or-treat bag to contact them at 05-878-5511 ext. 2415.

Halton Police report $500 damage was caused to a lawn tractor parked at Leathertown Pub overnight Saturday and Sunday.

Police report a man parked his tractor at the pub, went home on foot, and when he arrived the next morning the tractor had been tipped over and a tire slashed.

Two 16-year-old Georgetown males have been charged with break and enter in connection with a break-in at a Normandy Blvd. home Wednesday.

Police report they were called by someone who spotted youths coming out of the home. Shortly afterward police spotted two youths in Cedarvale Park, and following a short foot chase arrested one of the males. The other suspect got away but he turned himself in to police the next day.

Ultrasound donated

Emergency physician Dr. Justin Bussey (left) and Registered Nurse Patricia Laing get a demonstration of a portable ultrasound machine from Richard Boothroyd of Boothroyd Imaging Solutions. Boothroyd and ESAOTEPIe Medical donated the ultrasound, worth $13,500, to the Georgetown campus of the William Osler Health Centre. The ultrasound can help doctors make quicker and better decisions by allowing them to see injuries such as internal bleeding. Photo by Herb Garbutt
