Acton High School Athletes of the Week are Kaitlyn Andrews and Matt Bigg. Andrews, a member of the Bearcats senior basketball team, was selected for her strong defensive play against Brampton Christian Academy. Bigg, a member of the Bearcats cross country team was chosen for his second place finish at both the Haltons and GHAC which qualified him for OFSAA as well as his 3rd place overall win at the Niagara Falls marathon.

Georgetown District High School Athletes of the Week are Joel Greaves and Katie Banks. Greaves, a member of the Rebels cross country team was recognized for his 15th place out of 215 at GHAC. Banks, a point guard on the Rebels junior basketball team, was selected for her perfect attendance and all round excellent play.

Christ the King High School Athletes of the Week are Emma Carter and Jeremy Walsh. Walsh, a fullback on the Jaguars senior football team, was cited for his leadership on the team, and his strong play which resulted in a 14-8 win over MDHS. Carter, a centre on the Jaguars senior basketball team, was chosen for leading the scoring with her 14 point game against AHS.

Rebels advance in jr. playoffs

It looked like the Rebels might have another easy victory when Daniel Kearns intercepted a pass and ran it back 10 yards to the Abbey Park 35. A few plays later, Leckie ran it in from 25 yards out.

However, Abbey Park would tie the game in the second quarter. After a determined goal-line stand by the Rebels, the Eagles finally punched it in on third down.

Marinangeli Sr. said having local minor football teams has been a big boost to the high school program.

"A lot of these guys have played community ball and they've got more experience and they know each other. You put those together and you're going to have more success."

And unlike past seasons where interest waned as losses mounted, early-season success helped keep the Rebels motivated. Their only defeat was a 14-13 decision against Burlington Central, the Rebels' likely opponent in the Halton Division II semifinal on Wednesday.

Oldies on ice

The Georgetown Hockey Heritage Council Oldtimers Hockey Tournament is under way this weekend.

The 20th annual tournament will have games tonight (Friday) and all day Saturday. There are 35-and-over and 50-and-over divisions.

Finals will be played on Sunday.

Roadblock

Acton's Whitney Carroll looks to the basket but Georgetown's Jen White blocks her path during Wednesday's Halton senior girls basketball game. Georgetown got 13 points from Sherelle Sheppard and 12 from J.J. Edwards in a 55-16 victory. April Thomas was Acton's top scorer with six points and Nicole Gilbert had four.
