

New reverend to be installed at St. Andrew's this Sunday

St. Andrew's United Church will have a special service of welcome for new members, 10 a.m. on Sunday.

Everyone is encouraged to "bring a friend" to this service and the following social time featuring cake and ice cream.

Later, at 7 p.m., a special covenanting service will be held to officially install Rev. Grant Williams as St. Andrew's new minister. Williams comes to St. Andrew's from Wesley United Church in Brantford. He, along with his wife Laura and baby daughter Katie, now reside in Georgetown.

St. Andrew's congregation looks forward to exciting new programs and inspiring worship services under his leadership. Williams is an enthusiastic leader with a passion for reaching out to young people and their families. Everyone is invited to come out for these special services as well as regular worship services with nursery care and Sunday School provided every Sunday at 10 a.m. at 89 Mountainview Road S., in Georgetown.

GRANT WILLIAMS

United Way campaign continues

Remember to 'give where you live'

The United Way of Halton Hills's 2004-2005 annual campaign goal is $300,000. The success of this campaign relies on citizen donations, corporate donations, employee donations through payroll deductions directed to United Way of Halton Hills, special events at the workplace and fund-raising such as the upcoming Holiday House Tour.

Give where you live—remember to direct your payroll deductions to the United Way of Halton Hills. If you did not receive a brochure call 905-877-3066. The United Way supports 16 local social service agencies serving the residents of Halton Hills.

Holiday House tour
