The King was in the House

Another great Coffee House run by the local Amnesty International group was held recently at St. John's United Church, Georgetown— and even Elvis showed up. Norm Douglas, fresh from a gig at the Elvis Weekend in Collingwood last summer, came by to swivel his hips to the tunes of the 50s, 60s and 70s. Also performing during the evening was Classic Folk (Wendy Hunter, Jim Broughton, Bob Gee, Suzanne Hnatiw and Jack Pignatelli), Glen Williams singer Janice Gittings and the group, Justus. The Coffee House was in aid of Amnesty's current work to Stop Violence Against Women. The local group continues to work for human rights during meetings the second Wednesday of each month at St John's United Church.
