Youths face several charges

Two Georgetown male youths are facing charges in connection with vandalism at Christ the King Secondary School and a break-in at a Guelph St. business early Thursday.

Halton Police found drug paraphernalia on two youths who had been arrested when police found them looking into vehicles on Guelph St. early Thursday. Police report the paraphernalia had been taken from a Guelph St. store that was broken into early that morning.

While in custody the police also learned that graffiti had been spray-painted on the outside of the school.

Charged with mischief, break and enter, possession of break and enter tools and possession of stolen property is a 16 year-old and 14-year-old.

Police charged a Holstein man with having over 80 mg of alcohol in 100 ml of blood after a vehicle was stopped at Main and Church St. in Acton last Thursday evening.

Charged is Charles Dowdy, 42, of Egremount Township.

Famed author's life celebrated

The 12th annual Montgomery Christmas celebration will take over Norval this weekend.

The event provides an opportunity to discover the history and character of Norval and to enjoy an old-fashioned celebration of Christmas in the country. It honours one of Canada's best-loved authors— Lucy Maud Montgomery— who lived in Norval from 1926 to 1935 while her husband was minister of Norval Presbyterian Church and Union Church near Glen Williams.

This year Norval's three churches are hosting bazaars featuring handmade crafts, Christmas tree ornaments, baked goods and plenty of ideas for gifts.

Norval United Church (Hwy. 7) will host a bazaar and lunch from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m., St.

Paul's Anglican Parish Hall on Winston Churchill Blvd. South will hold a bazaar and lunch from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m., and Norval Presbyterian Church (Hwy. 7) will host a bazaar from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m., and lunch from 11:30 to 1:30 p.m.

Also on Saturday the Norval United Church Brass ensemble will be performing throughout the village and at Crawfords' Village Bakeshop editors of The Selected Journals of L.M. Montgomery Dr. Mary Rubio and Dr. Elizabeth Waterston will be signing copies of the books.

From 1 to 3 p.m. on Saturday and Sunday Canoe Country will host its 1st annual tea party.

Numerous other events are planned throughout the weekend.

NOTICE OF STUDY COMMENCEMENT & NOTICE OF FIRST PUBLIC INFORMATION CENTRE

TERMS OF REFERENCE FOR THE ENVIRONMENTAL ASSESSMENT THE NORTH-SOUTH CORRIDOR AND BRAMWEST PARKWAY FROM HIGHWAY 401/407 TO MAYFIELD ROAD

The City of Brampton is preparing the Terms of Reference for a future Individual Environmental Assessment (EA) for a new North-South transportation corridor from Highway 401 in Halton to Mayfield Road in Brampton, and the Bramwest Parkway transportation corridor in Brampton from Highway 407 to the new North-South corridor. The study area is shown on the key map below.

The Terms of Reference will be a "road map" of how the North-South Corridor and the Bramwest Parkway Environmental Assessment and public consultation will be conducted.

The City is giving notice of the study commencement and the first set of Public Information Centres (PICs). The purpose of this set of PICs will be to introduce the study and present the consultation approach to the Terms of Reference, the Background to the Undertaking, the Description of the Problem or Opportunity, and the Study Area.

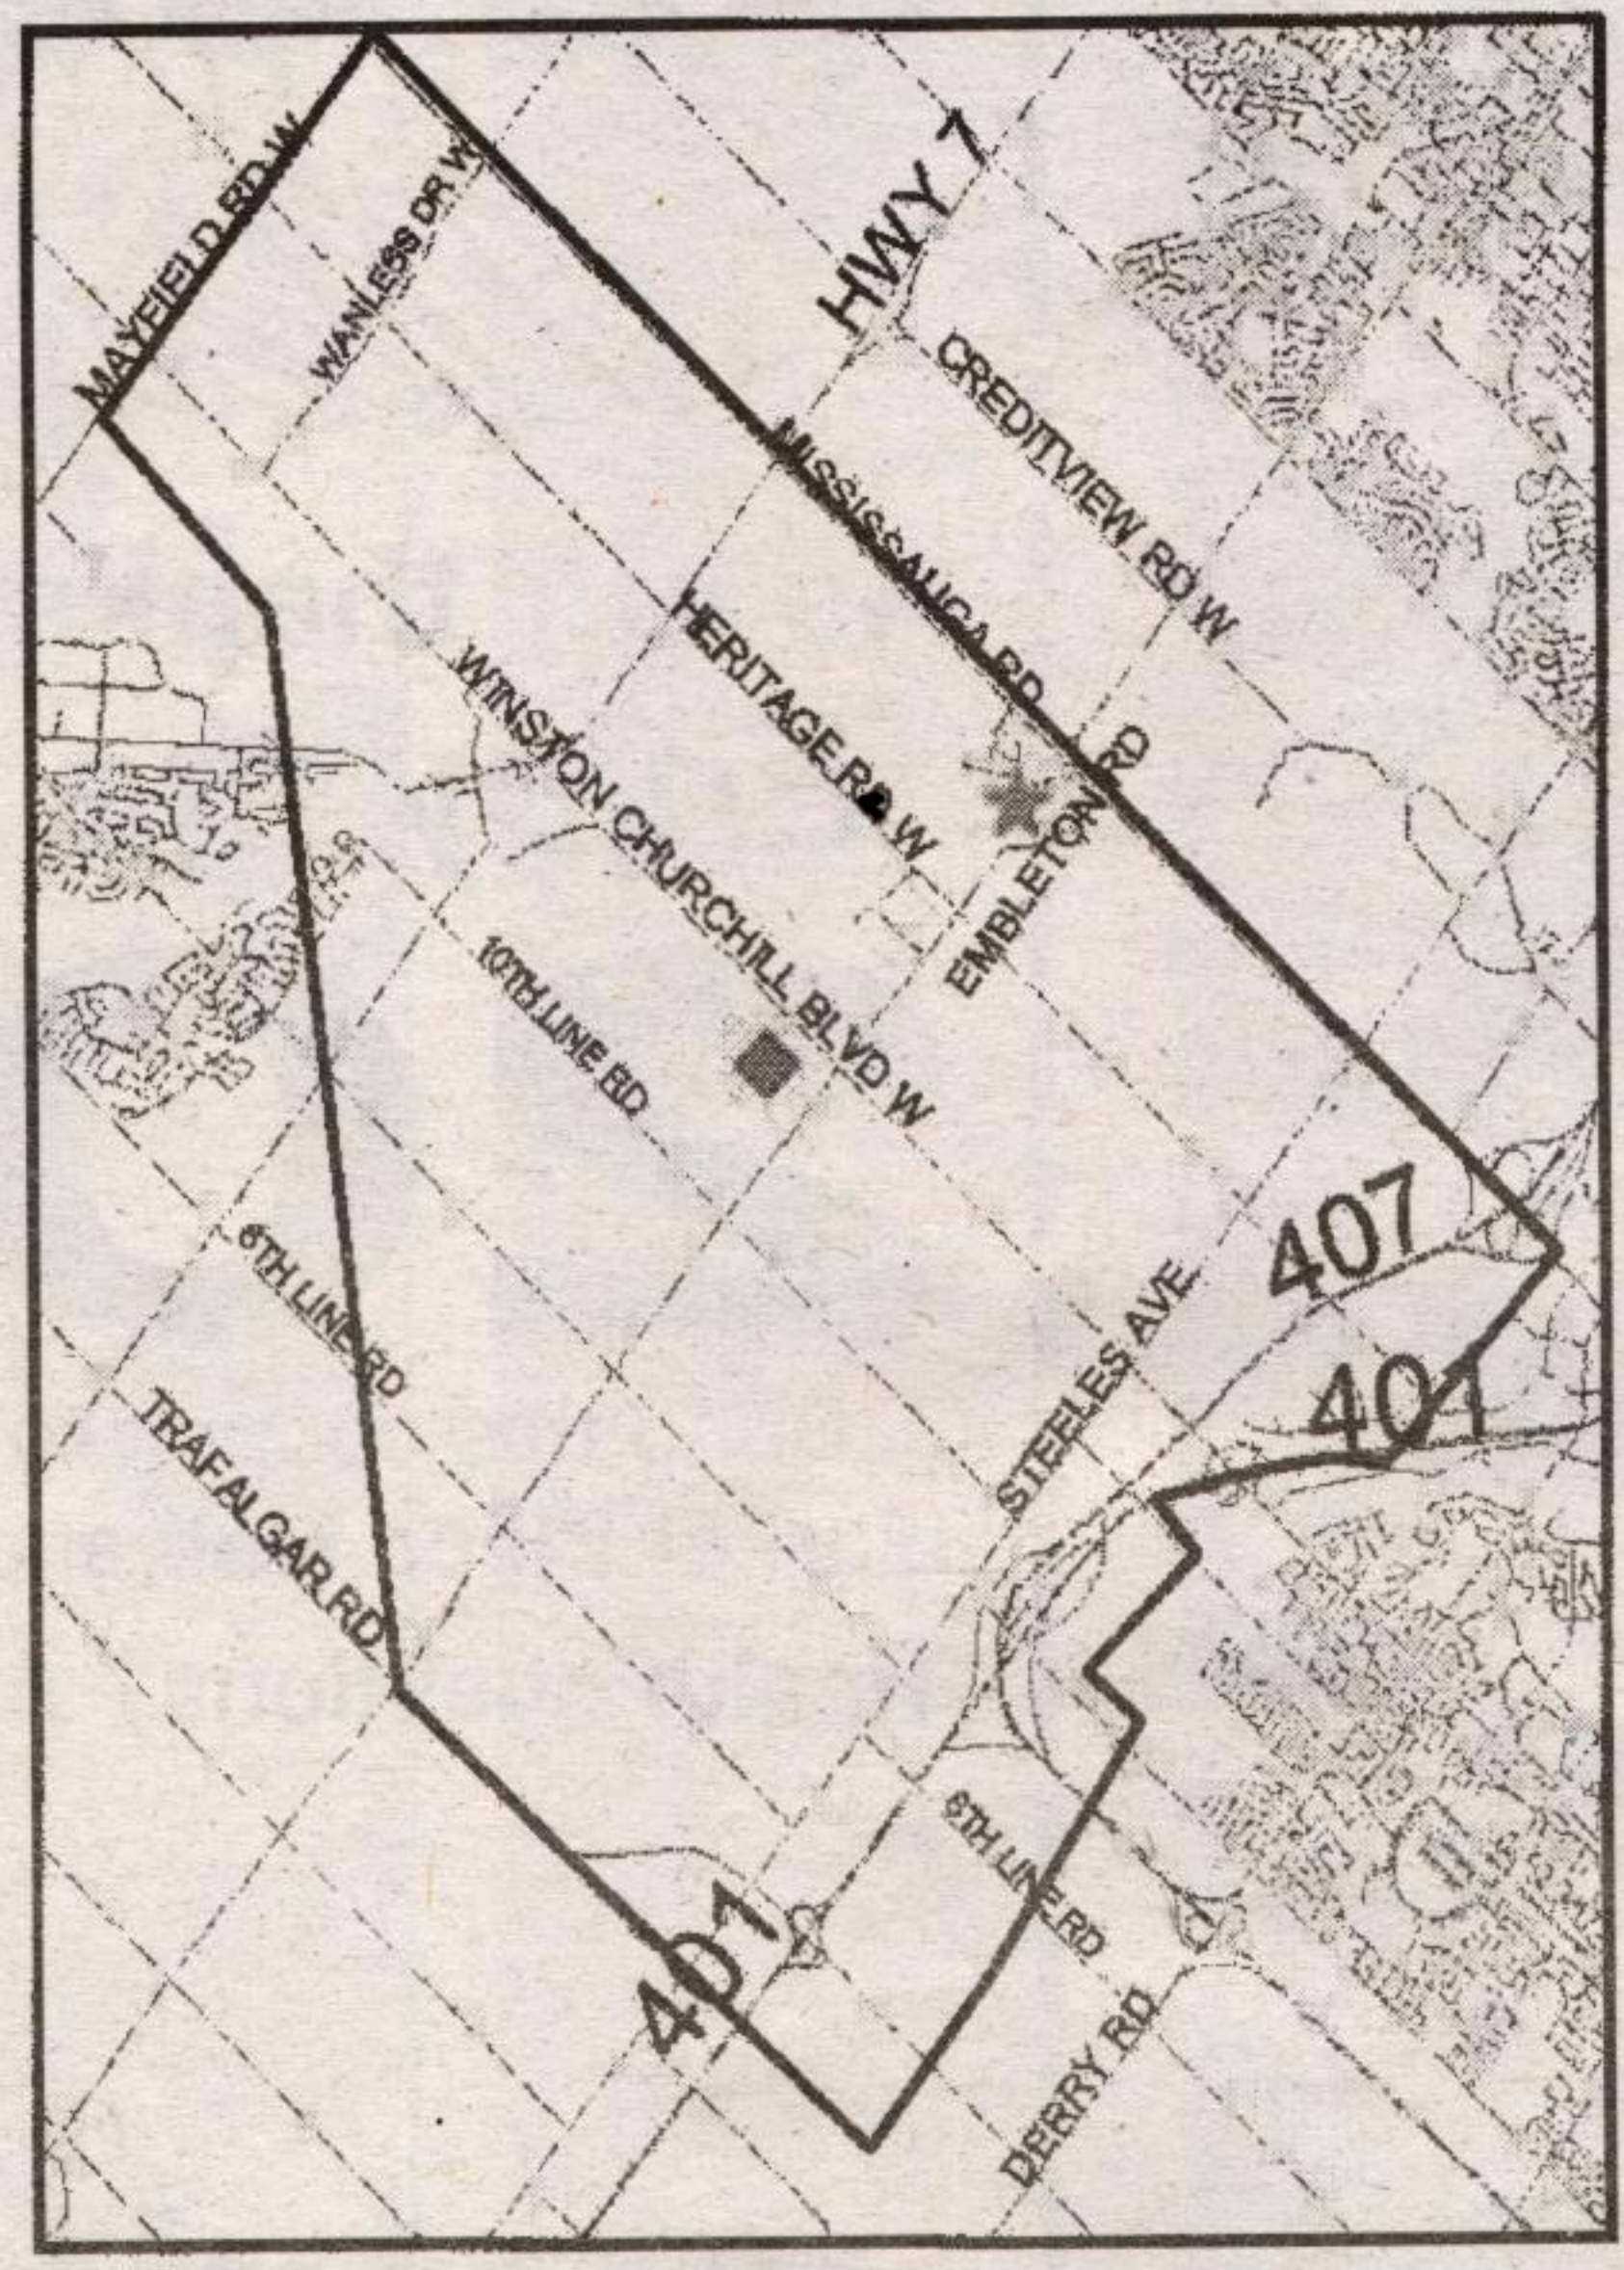

Public consultation is vital to this study.

You are invited to attend the 1st set of Public Information Centres which is scheduled for the times and dates below:

November 29, 2004
Time: 5:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m.
Place: Huttonville Public School (2322 Embleton Road, Brampton, ON)
★ Located at the star on the key map.

November 30, 2004
Time: 6:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m.
Place: Croatian Cultural Centre (Winston Churchill Blvd, Halton Hills, ON)
◆ Located at the diamond on the key map.

City staff and their consultants will be available at the Information Centres to answer your questions about the project. Anyone with an interest in the study is invited to attend and participate. With the exception of personal information, all comments will become part of the public record.

If you cannot attend and would like to provide comments, please forward them to:
