

Rock 'n Rolling for WOHC

Norval group to sell heritage garden seeds

Seed harvested at Norval's Lucy Maud Montgomery Garden will be available for sale at this weekend's Montgomery Christmas.

The Norval Community Association will be selling the seed of old-fashioned favourites such as Lamb's Ears, Love-in-a-Mist, Holly Hocks, Shirley Poppies and Black-Eyed Susans.

Flowers from the garden won six awards at the Georgetown Horticultural Society's September Flower Show.

"It's the first time a community garden has ever entered the competition, so we were very, very pleased with our results," says Diana Pooke, head of the Lucy Maud Montgomery

Garden committee.

The heritage seed will be available at Canoe Country located at 16 Adamson Street North in Norval this Saturday between 11 a.m. and 4 p.m. It's priced at $1.25 per pack or five for $5. The community association will also be hosting a tea party at this location.

Other events featured during Montgomery Christmas include the viewing of an Anne of Green Gables silent movie at the old Norval school. In addition, there will be a book signing by Dr. Mary Rubio and Dr. Elizabeth Watson, co-editors of Selected Journals of Lucy Maud Montgomery, at Crawford's Village Bakeshop.
