

2001 COROLLA4 Cylinder
Auto, Air, CD
Power Locks
#P1677Bi-Weekly
$133⁰⁰*2002 COROLLA CEAuto, Air,
PW Locks,
CD, 68,000 km
#5COR011-1Bi-Weekly
$149⁰⁰*2002 SIENNA CE7 Passenger
75,000 kms
#5SIE637-1Bi-Weekly
$230⁰⁰*2000 TACOMA PRERUNNERTRD Package,
V6, 4x2,
Extra Cab
#P1756-1Bi-Weekly
$248⁷⁵

15 MOUNTAINVIEW RD. N., -

GEORGETOWN(905) 877-2296*Tor. 874-4276WEBSITE at www.georgetowntoyota.com or E-MAIL at info@georgetowntoyota.comActon/Georgetown, Friday, May 6, 2005 17

Holy Cross student Cassie Violette places a candle at the base of the Georgetown cenotaph Thursday morning. Hundreds of students from local schools participated in the Halton Hills Candlelight Tributes. Silent Walk tributes were also planned for last night in Acton and Georgetown.

Photo by Herb Garbutt

Veterans thanked by grateful youths

For today's students, war is only something they see on TV or read about in history books.

But yesterday's (Thursday's) Halton Hills Candlelight Tributes gave local students an opportunity to meet those who know war far more than most of us could ever imagine.

Students helped in the ceremony by placing candles at the base of the cenotaph, then shook hands with veterans who helped keep their country free long before they were born.

"It's really amazing to be here because without the veterans we wouldn't be our own country," said Tristan Clarke, a Grade 7 student at St. Catherine of Alexandria.

"It's a chance to say thanks to the veterans for helping our country," said Clarke's classmate John Harmer.

"We're really thankful for what they did," added Robert Hunter.

Retired Major Robert Holliday came from Mississauga because he heard of the effort that Limehouse Public School student Lucas LaRoche shakes hands with veteran John Cummins following Thursday's Candlelight Tributes at the Georgetown cenotaph.

Photo by Herb Garbutt

went into the local ceremony.

"To see the strong support of the teachers and students and the community and the efforts they are going through to commemorate the events in Holland, it's great to be a part of it," he said.

—By Herb Garbutt, staff writer

Veterans honoured

To celebrate the 60th anniversary of VE-Day, the Town of Halton Hills unveiled a monument outside the Civic Centre, dedicated to the troops who served. Taking part in the unveiling were (from left) Rein Pater of the Dutch Canadian Association, veterans James A. Milne of Acton Legion Branch 197 and Morley Barnes of Georgetown Legion Branch 120 and Halton Hills Mayor Rick Bonnette. Photo by Herb Garbutt

WILLIAM
OSLER
HEALTH
CENTREwww.williamoslerhc.on.ca

Osler - Etobicoke

Osler - Peel Memorial

Osler - Brampton

Osler - Georgetown

OSLER NURSES WE THANK YOU!

Osler Nurses have a tradition of caring for patients and families. Their knowledge and skill make a difference, as they work directly with patients 24 hours a day to support, comfort and provide expert care to patients and family members.

Nurses can be found in the operating room, at the bedside, in outpatient clinics or in an advisory role promoting wellness and healthy families. Whether providing a human touch amidst technology for a critically ill patient or a reassuring smile to a sick child, Osler Nurses are there.

This week we celebrate the significant contributions that our 2000 nurses make year round. Nursing Week, May 9th to 15th.

William Osler Health Centre is one of the largest hospitals in Ontario. As a regional referral centre, we provide programs and services to nearly one million area residents. Our facilities offer acute care and ancillary health care in the growing and diverse communities of Etobicoke, Brampton and Georgetown, Ontario. William Osler Health Centre is poised for considerable growth with the construction of a fourth hospital located in Brampton, major expansions to our facilities in Etobicoke and Georgetown, and redevelopment of the existing Peel Memorial Hospital campus in Brampton.

Advancing the health of our community