United Way meeting June 15

Everyone is welcome to attend the United Way of Halton Hills annual general meeting and volunteer appreciation night set for Wednesday, June 15. At the meeting, to be held at Ares Family Restaurant, 232 Guelph St., from 7 to 8:30 p.m., the new strategic vision of the United Way will be discussed and the organization's volunteers will be honoured. It will be a very useful meeting for agencies looking for funding from the United Way in the upcoming year.

Police blotter

Suspect sought after man stabbed repeatedly with beer bottle

Halton Police are looking for a man after a 27-year-old Georgetown man was stabbed with a broken beer bottle early Sunday. Halton Police report the incident occurred at approximately 2:50 a.m. in the lobby of a Park Ave. apartment building. The victim and other men were involved in a verbal dispute that led to an altercation. Police report the victim was stabbed in the head, neck and shoulder area with a broken beer bottle, then the suspect and other men got on the elevator and left. The victim was taken to hospital with non-life threatening injuries where he received stitches to his neck and above his left eye. The suspect is described as a white male, approximately 23 years old, 6'2", 200 lbs, with short brown hair, shaved close. He was wearing a hat to the side and a blue long-sleeved shirt and jeans. He was with three other skinny males, believed to be younger. Police are still investigating. Anyone with information is asked to call Det. Const. Rob Todd at 905-878-5511 ext. 2417.

Halton Police report an unknown man was seen taking pictures of kids on the playground equipment at Gellert Community Centre shortly after noon

Saturday. The man was seen leaving the park in a two-door red sports car. He is described as white, in his 40s, 200 to 225 lbs, average height, with short dark hair and possibly a moustache. He was wearing blue jeans and a blue golf shirt.

Police are investigating the theft of two large planting urns, valued at $1,400 and weighing approximately 400 lbs each, from the Double Oak Homes sales office on Mountainview Rd. at Argyll Rd. late Saturday or early Sunday.

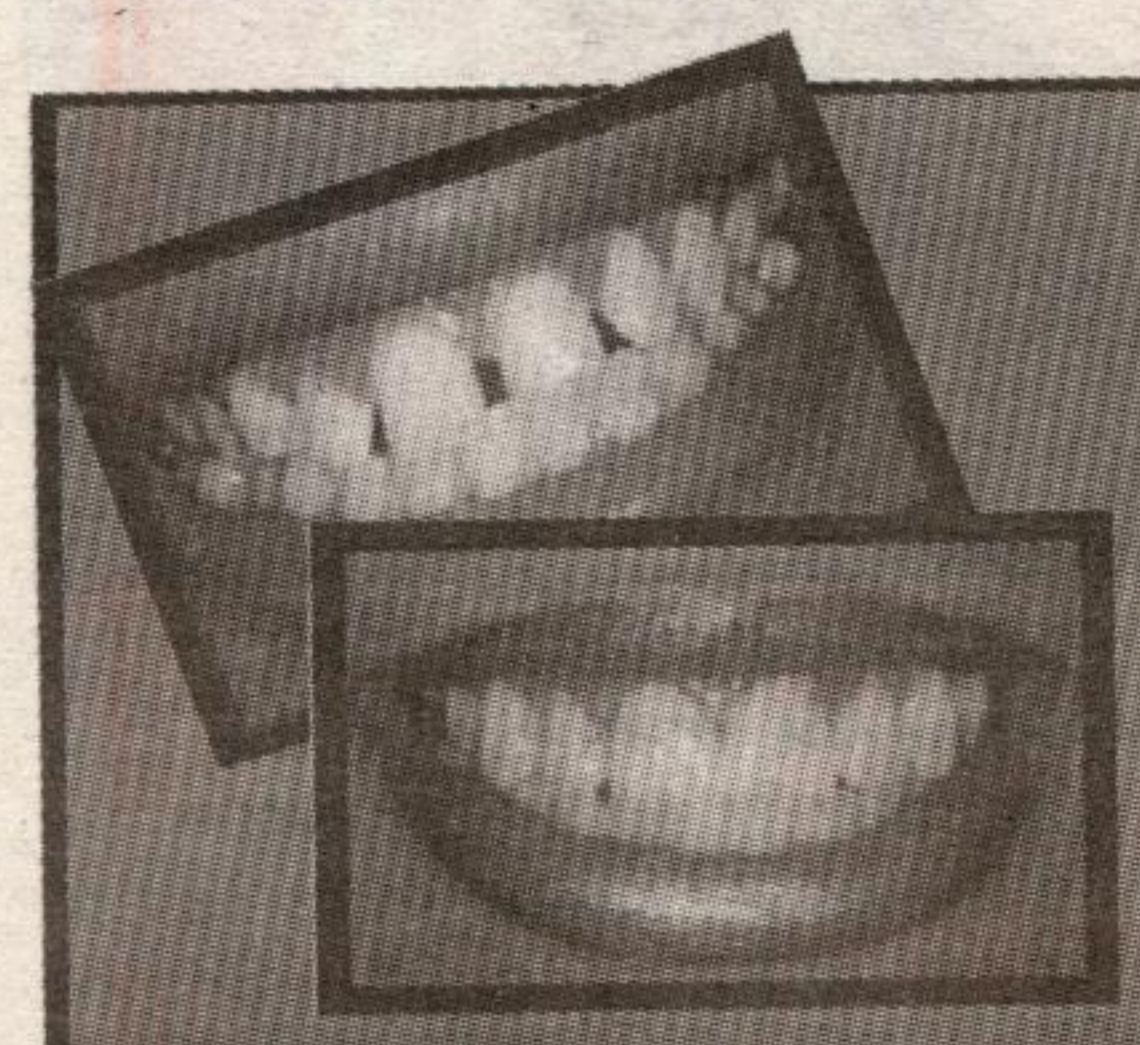

A Mississauga man was charged with impaired driving and having over 80 mg of alcohol in 100 ml of blood after police stopped a vehicle on Trafalgar Rd. north of Five Sideroad early Friday morning. Charged is Steven Torres, 27, of Marshdale Court.

Police report someone attempted to break into a 22 Sideroad home Monday afternoon.

When the homeowner arrived home she saw an older two-door red car backing out of her driveway and discovered the locked screen door at the rear of the home had been pulled open, but there was no entry into the house.

The last three letters on the licence plate on the car seen leaving the driveway were ZRY.
