

Raiders get to meet 'Stanley'

The Georgetown Raiders got a surprise visitor in their dressing room after practice Sunday. With his usually busy schedule wide open this year, the Stanley Cup stopped by Weyburn. And Stanley ended up in the Raider dressing room following their practice. The Raiders got their picture taken with the Cup prior to opening their run at another Cup.

Unfortunately, the hockey world's top prize didn't inspire the Raiders to new heights as they dropped their opening game of the Royal Bank Cup 4-3 to the host Weyburn Red Wings.

The Raiders were held at bay by Weyburn goalie Brenden Cuthbert. That name might sound familiar if you watched the hockey reality series Making the Cut. Cuthbert enjoyed a long run on the show, surviving until the ninth week of the 13-week series.

On Sunday Battle of Warriors is set for SportsPlex

Anyone looking to get their kicks should head over to the Mold-Masters SportsPlex this Sunday.

The 13th Annual Battle of Warriors Tae Kwon Do Tournament, hosted by Ayensu Olympic Tae Kwon Do, will begin with the opening ceremonies at 10 a.m. Competitors are expected from across Ontario as well as England and the United States.

There will be competition in patterns, sparring and weapons with age groups from four-year-olds to adult. The tournament will be highlighted by the local and international open black belt championship which will run from approximately 3:30 p.m. to 5:30 p.m.

There will be plenty of action to watch with 12 competition rings. Admission is $8 or free to children seven and under.
