

Rally planned for Raiders on Wednesday

Win or lose at the Royal Bank Cup Canadian Jr. A Hockey Championship in Saskatchewan, the Georgetown Raiders will receive a hero's welcome when they return home next week.

The Town of Halton Hills is hosting a "Thank You Raiders Rally" at Mold-Masters SportsPlex starting at 7p.m., Wednesday, May 18 to recognize the team's successful season and Central Canadian championship win.

Raiders fans are encouraged to come out with their best posters and thunder sticks to shake hands and congratulate the players.

"This team has gone beyond belief," said Mayor Rick Bonnette. "They are the comeback kids. They've gone further than any Georgetown Jr. A hockey team has."

At the free rally, team members will receive their recognition medals from the Town of Halton Hills.

There will be free pizza and pop for everyone at the rally.
