100 years young

A 100th birthday party was held Sunday (May 8) at the North Halton Golf and Country Club for former Georgetown District High School teacher Jessie Glynn (centre). On hand to help Glynn celebrate the milestone were former students Cecil B. Foster of Sarnia (left) and Clyde Archer of Calgary who were students in the longtime teacher's first Latin class.

Last chance to cheer the Raiders tonight

The Town of Halton Hills is hosting a "Thank You Raiders Rally" at Mold-Masters SportsPlex at 7p.m. tonight (Wednesday) to recognize the team's successful season and Central Canadian championship win.

The Raiders lost in the semifinals of the Royal Bank Cup tournament in Weyburn, Sask. Saturday (see story page 19).

Raiders fans are encouraged to come out with their best posters and thunder sticks to shake hands and congratulate the players.

At the free rally, team members will receive their recognition medals from the Town of Halton Hills. There will be free pizza and pop for everyone at the rally.
