

Police blotter

Citizen's complaint leads to charges

A Georgetown man is facing charges after Halton Police responded to the Steeles Ave./Trafalgar Rd. area based on a complaint from a concerned citizen. When police arrived they found a vehicle parked in that area with a man in the driver's seat and the keys on the passenger seat beside him.

Charged with impaired operation and having over 80 mg of alcohol in 100 ml of blood is Michael Walker, 37, of Mowat Cr.

Police are investigating a break and enter at a Winston Churchill Blvd. home that occurred Friday afternoon. A cement pot was used to smash a window in the back door to gain entry. Jewelry and cash, totaling $3,100, were taken.

An Optio digital camera and memory card, valued at $300, were taken from a desk drawer at Gary Allen School on Guelph St. sometime between Thursday May 12 and last Tuesday.

An Acton man was charged with impaired driving and having over 80 mg of alcohol in 100 ml of blood after Wellington OPP stopped a Dodge Ram on Hwy. 6 near Sideroad 10 in Nichol Township Friday evening.

Charged is Wade M. Buczek, 39, of Acton.

A Georgetown man is facing charges after Wellington OPP stopped a Ford F-150 pickup on Wellington Rd. 109 in Arthur Saturday evening.

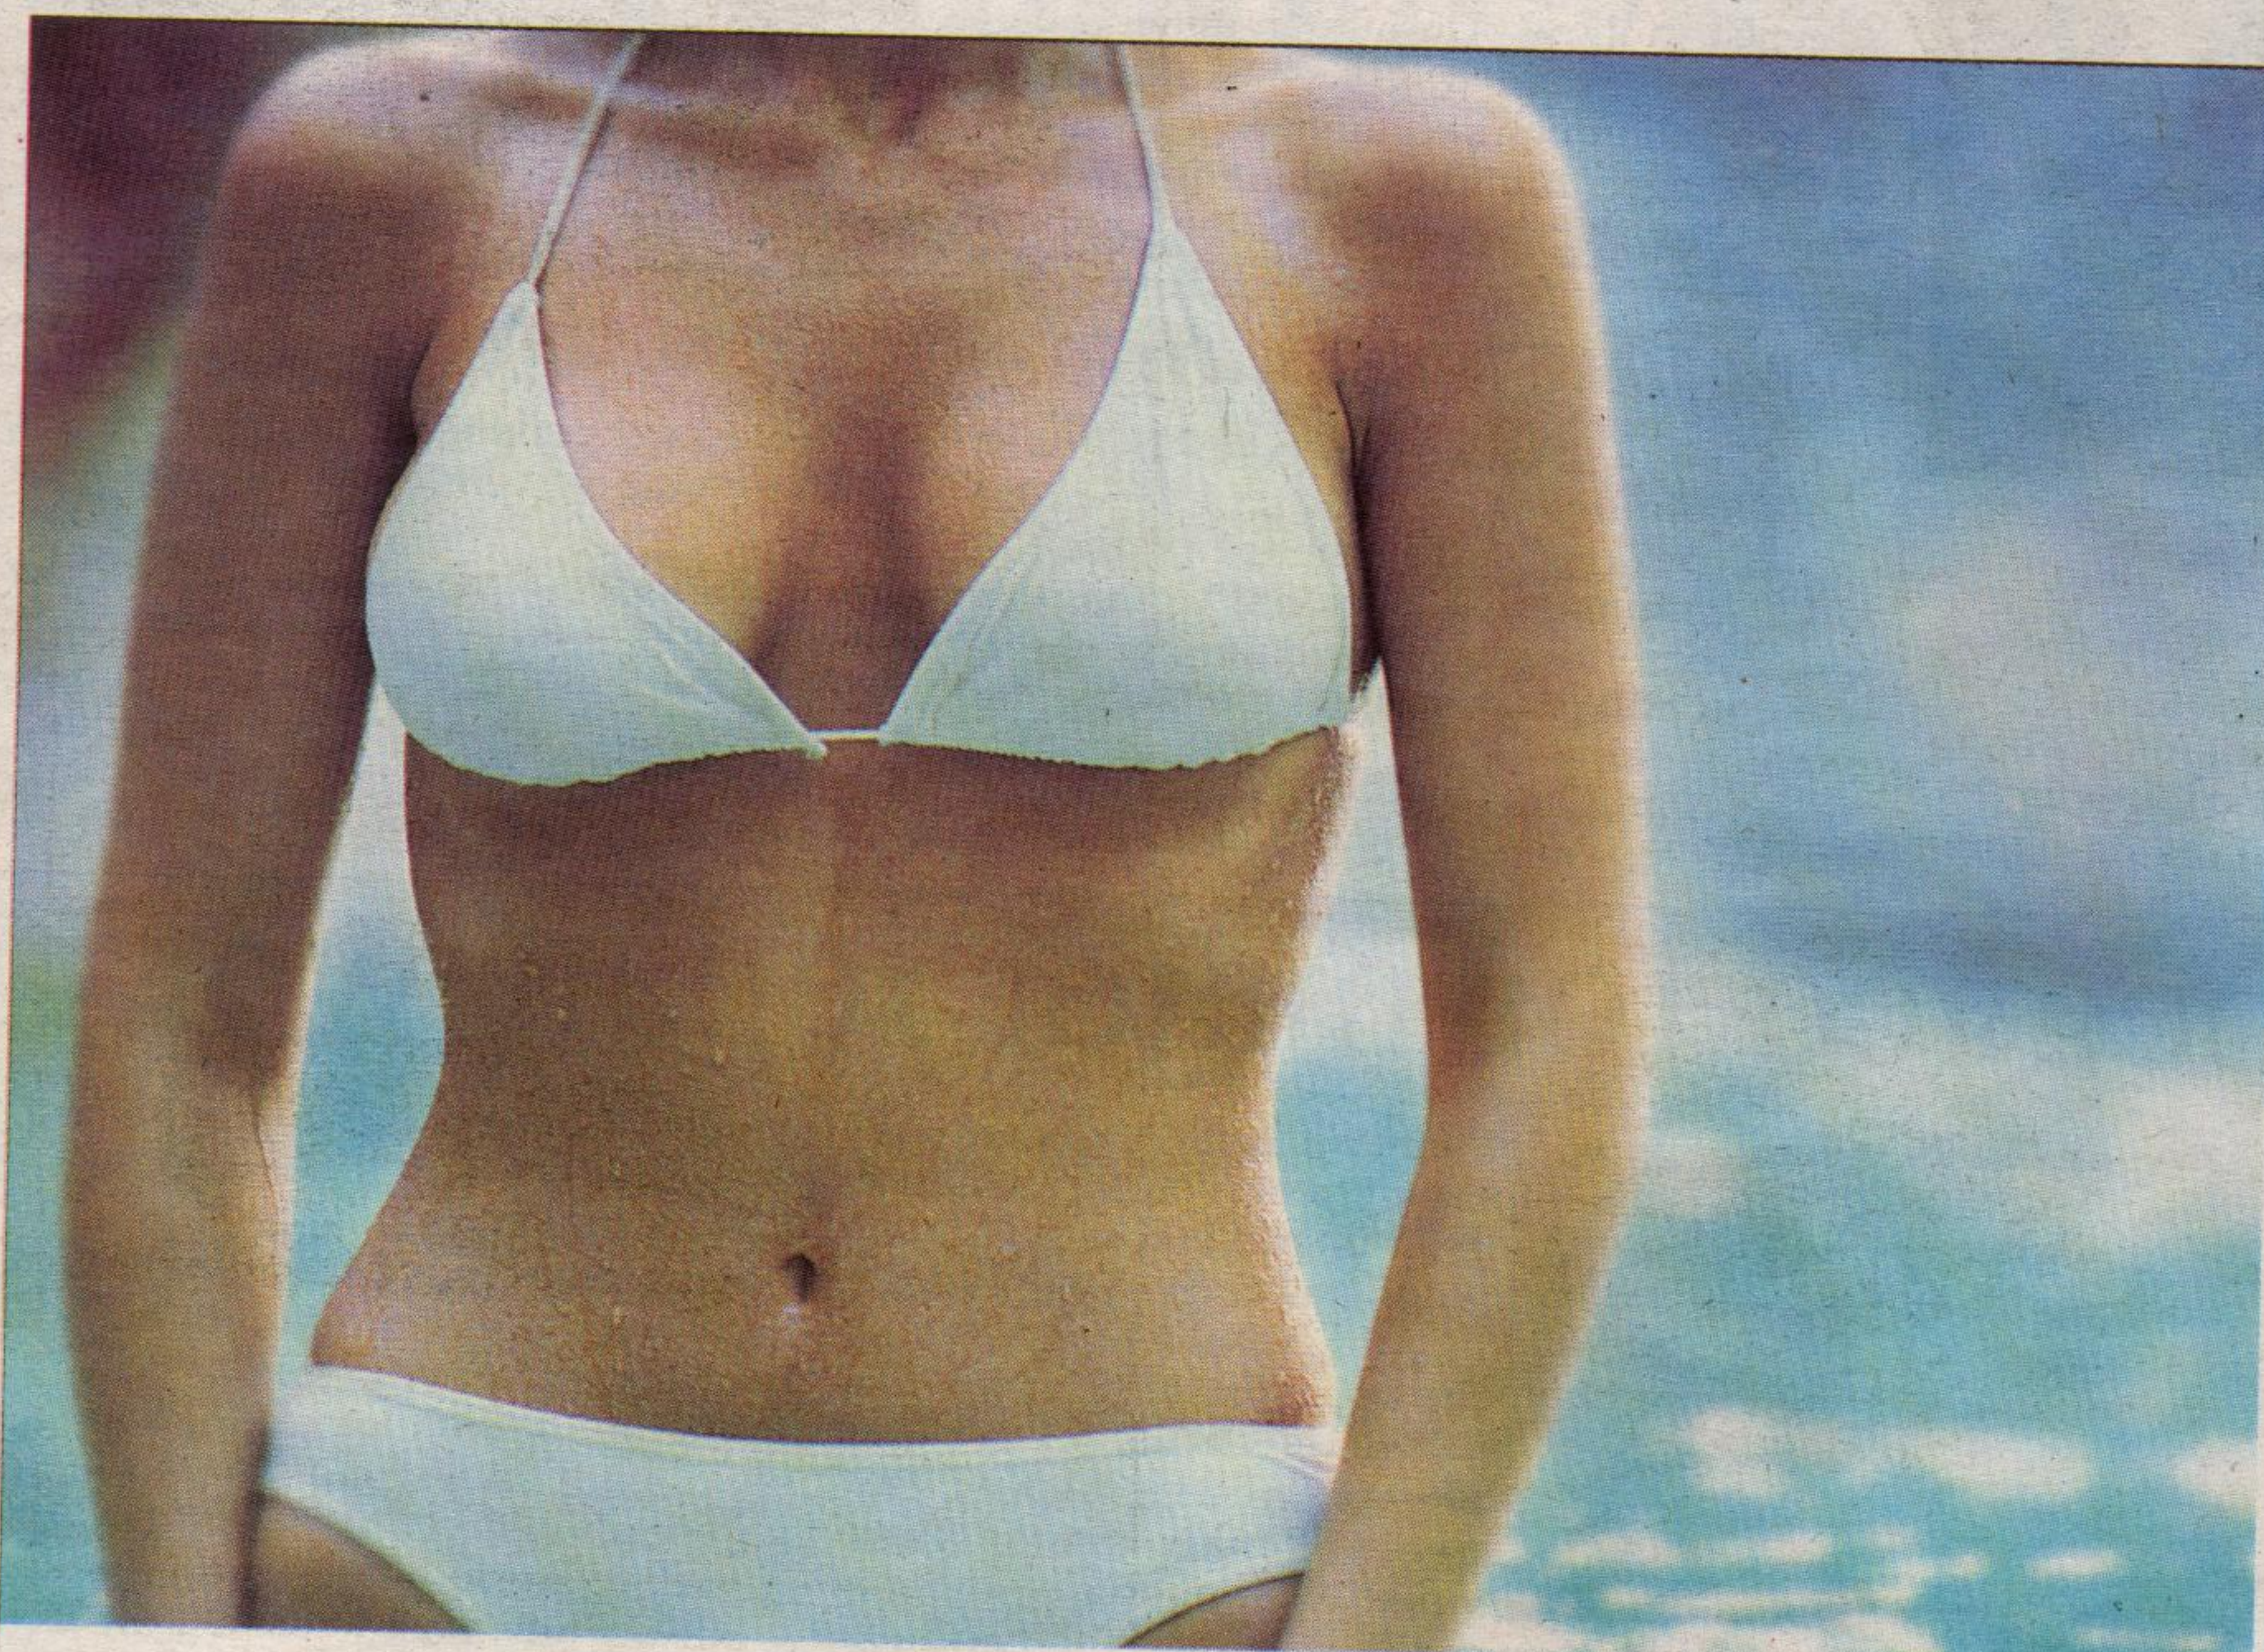

Charged with impaired driving, having more than 80 mgs of alcohol in 100 ml of blood and having liquor readily available is Mark A. Fendley, 46, of Georgetown.

Do you want fries with that?

No, Independent & Free Press photographer Ted Brown wasn't caught moonlighting last week. In fact, he was helping out at McDonald's on Guelph Street as part of McHappy Day where local residents take a turn working at the stores. A dollar from all Big Mac sales went to the William Osler Health Centre (Georgetown campus) foundation.
