Café Memoirs set for seniors' centre tonight

Tonight (Wednesday) is the evening of the Café Memoirs. It begins at 7:30 p.m. This is a wonderful opportunity to share in a cup of tea/coffee and some sweets and, best of all, stories, funny and serious times from the lives of people just like you. These authors love to share these memories. I have a feeling they will make you recall some past experiences from your life.

Another important date is Wednesday, June 1. This is the night the Drama Club presents its Annual Variety Night. Come out and enjoy an evening of local senior talent.

Congratulations to Jo Morra and

Eleanor Murphy for the delicious lunch their team served at the May Flowers luncheon at the Georgetown Seniors' Centre. I wasn't able to attend but by all accounts I understand all enjoyed it. Jo, we are surely going to miss you when you move to Port Cobourg. I guess you won't reconsider.

June is Seniors Month. The Town of Halton Hills' seniors' centres invites all seniors to help celebrate the 10th anniversary of the centres on Tuesday, June 14, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Gellert Community Centre. This is located on Eighth Line (Main St. S.). All adults 55 and up are welcome. Everything is free.

What a great time to try different programs at the centre like water exercises and the Arthritis Program. There will also be senior centre programs like tai chi, line dancing and square dancing. If you ever thought about getting involved in some of these, this will be your opportunity to try them out.

Food and lots of fun will be available and transportation will be provided. Call the centres to find out about pickup points and times: Acton Seniors' Centre (519-853-5951) or Georgetown Seniors' Centre (905-877-6444). Call at least a day prior to book a ride.
