Rauwerda, Griese win three medals at Ontario meet

Derek Rauwerda and Adam Griese of the Halton Hills Gymnastics Club each earned three medals at the provincial championships in Burlington and advanced to the Eastern Canadian Championships.

Rauwerda earned the all-round silver medal in the Level 4 division and added a gold medal on pommel horse and a silver medal on the high bar.

Griese also won a pair of event medals to secure the all-around bronze medal in the Level 2, 13-and-over division. He also won a gold on parallel bars and a bronze on vault.

While Rauwerda and Griese combined to win six medals, their Halton Hills teammates brought home eight more from the provincials, including three more golds.

Alex Bowmer earned a gold medal on high bar and a bronze on vault to finish seventh all-around in the Level 2, 13-and-over division.

Corey Gilles took the gold on vault and a silver on floor to place ninth all-around.

Daniel Stepner earned top marks to take the gold on the vault in the Level 3, 13-and-over division. He placed 20th all-around.

In the same division, Marc de Lestard won a pair of silver medals, finishing second on pommel horse and parallel bars, to finish fifth all-around.

Gregory Listor finished tied, sharing the silver medal on floor in the Level 1, 10-and-under division. He was 13th all-around. Teammate Jesse Bydevaate just missed an all-around medal in the division, placing fourth.

Others competing at provincials were Zachary Brautigian, who finished 14th all-around in the Level 1, 10-and-under division and Robert Stepner, who was 15th.

Wesley Smith was 22nd all-around in the Level 1, 10-12 division.
