

Singers present Cantate Domino

Brampton Festival Singers presents Cantate Domino by Dietrich Buxtehude and songs of the Renaissance period in a special Georgetown performance, 8 p.m., at St. John's United Church tomorrow (Saturday).

Many pieces will be sung 'a capella' showcasing the richness of sound produced by the Brampton Festival Singers under the direction of Stephane Potvin.

In addition to three regular concerts per season, Brampton Festival Singers has performed at benefit concerts, retirement homes, special events and celebrations within Brampton and the surrounding communities.

A native of Quebec, Potvin began conducting in the early 1980s, studying privately and then continuing his conducting studies in Montreal where he directed a number of ensembles including the McGill Chamber Singers as assistant conductor.

Lynne Honsberger is the accompanist for the choir. She is the director of music for St. Andrew's United Church in Niagara Falls and accompanist for Chorus Niagara.

Tickets for the May 28 performances are $18 per person and can be purchased from the Brampton Box Office, 905-793-4600, through Doreen Beffort, 519-927-3335 or at the following stores in Georgetown: Foodstuffs, The Freckled Lion, Bergsma's Paint & Wallpaper and Young's Pharmacy.

Local sailing enthusiast launches book that helps identify world flags

sails her Alberg 22, named Sparrowhawk, out of the Bronte Harbour Yacht Club. The book will also be available at Chapter's.

"The thing with this guide is that you are using visual design to help identify flags, not listings by country or the alphabet. And you don't need to cart around an encyclopedia to do the job."

De Kleer, a retired assistant professor at the Ontario Veterinary College in Guelph, sees her guide as being a practical reference tool for the military, customs officials, diplomats and students, especially in multicultural settings. Tourists too, she adds, should find it handy, especially on cruises or while traveling overseas.

She got the idea for the guide in 2000 when she sailed the Atlantic from Halifax to Amsterdam with a fleet of tall ships representing 25 countries.

She crewed aboard Britain's 170-foot Lord Nelson, a sail training ship out of Southampton that allows men and women with disabilities to crew. Her book is dedicated to the Lord Nelson's officers and crew.

National flags from Aphasia to Zimbabwe are included in the guide along with flags that form the International Alphabet and pennants that make up the International Code of Signals, dating from 1932.

The guide also includes a glossary that covers 40 items about flags.
