

Hortons lends students a hand

Chris Passmore (left) and Steven Ackroyd, (right) were happy to receive Tim Horton scholarships for $1,000 each, to help their post-secondary education. On hand to make the presentation were Tim Hortons Guelph St. owner Mary Walker

(centre), flanked by manager Erin Loughnan and assistant manager Jeff Van de Valk. To be eligible, scholarship applicants had to demonstrate community service, satisfactory grades and be connected to the Tim Hortons family as an employee or be related to an employee. Passmore is attending the University of Guelph, while Ackroyd is off the Sir Sanford Fleming College.
