Sign up now for library's preschool programs

It's time to register for Baby Tales, Tales for Twos and Library Lion Tales— library story programs held at Halton Hills Public Library.

Baby Tales is for babies, aged 6-23 months, and their grownups, and features nursery rhymes, music and rhythm. It's a great way for parents to meet.

Tales for Twos is a one-on-one program for two year olds and their grownups. Leaders will use simple stories, music and finger-plays to keep toddlers entertained.

Finally, Library Lion Tales is a program for children, aged 3-5, where they attend on their own but grownups stay in the library. Leaders will read stories, sing, and sometimes watch a movie or make a craft.

These three programs are registered by lottery. Forms are available at both branches until Sept. 30 or at www.library.hhpl.on.ca.

For parents who would prefer a drop-in program, Family Storytime is held on Wednesdays and Saturdays at the Georgetown branch.

For more information about any of these programs, call 905-873-2681 ext. 2520 or 519-853-0301 or visit www.library.hhpl.on.ca/kids_programs.asp.
