

Education Day kicks off Acton Fall Fair Friday

Youngsters in Grade 5 and lower will get a sneak peek at the 92nd Acton Fall Fair when they participate in Education Day on opening day, Friday, Sept. 16.

The three-day fair, billed as "The Best Little Fair in Ontario" will be held in Prospect Park, from Friday to Sunday, Sept. 18.

Gates will open at 10 a.m. on Friday for all children, up to and include Grade 5 level, for Sobey's Education Day. Games, activities and displays, teaching about agriculture, will run all day long. One condition: an adult must accompany the children.

At 4 p.m. the Fair opens to the general public and the Midway gets rolling. The first must-see event of the fair is the Heavy Horse Pull at 6 p.m. followed by the Miss Acton Fall Fair Pageant at 8 p.m.

When the gates open to the public at 8 a.m. on Saturday make a beeline to the English and Western Gymkhana and Games Show, which starts immediately. That is followed by the poultry and pigeon shows, the heavy horse and the light horses shows.

The Acton Fall Fair Parade gets under way at noon as does the Halton 4-H Pony Mounted Games.

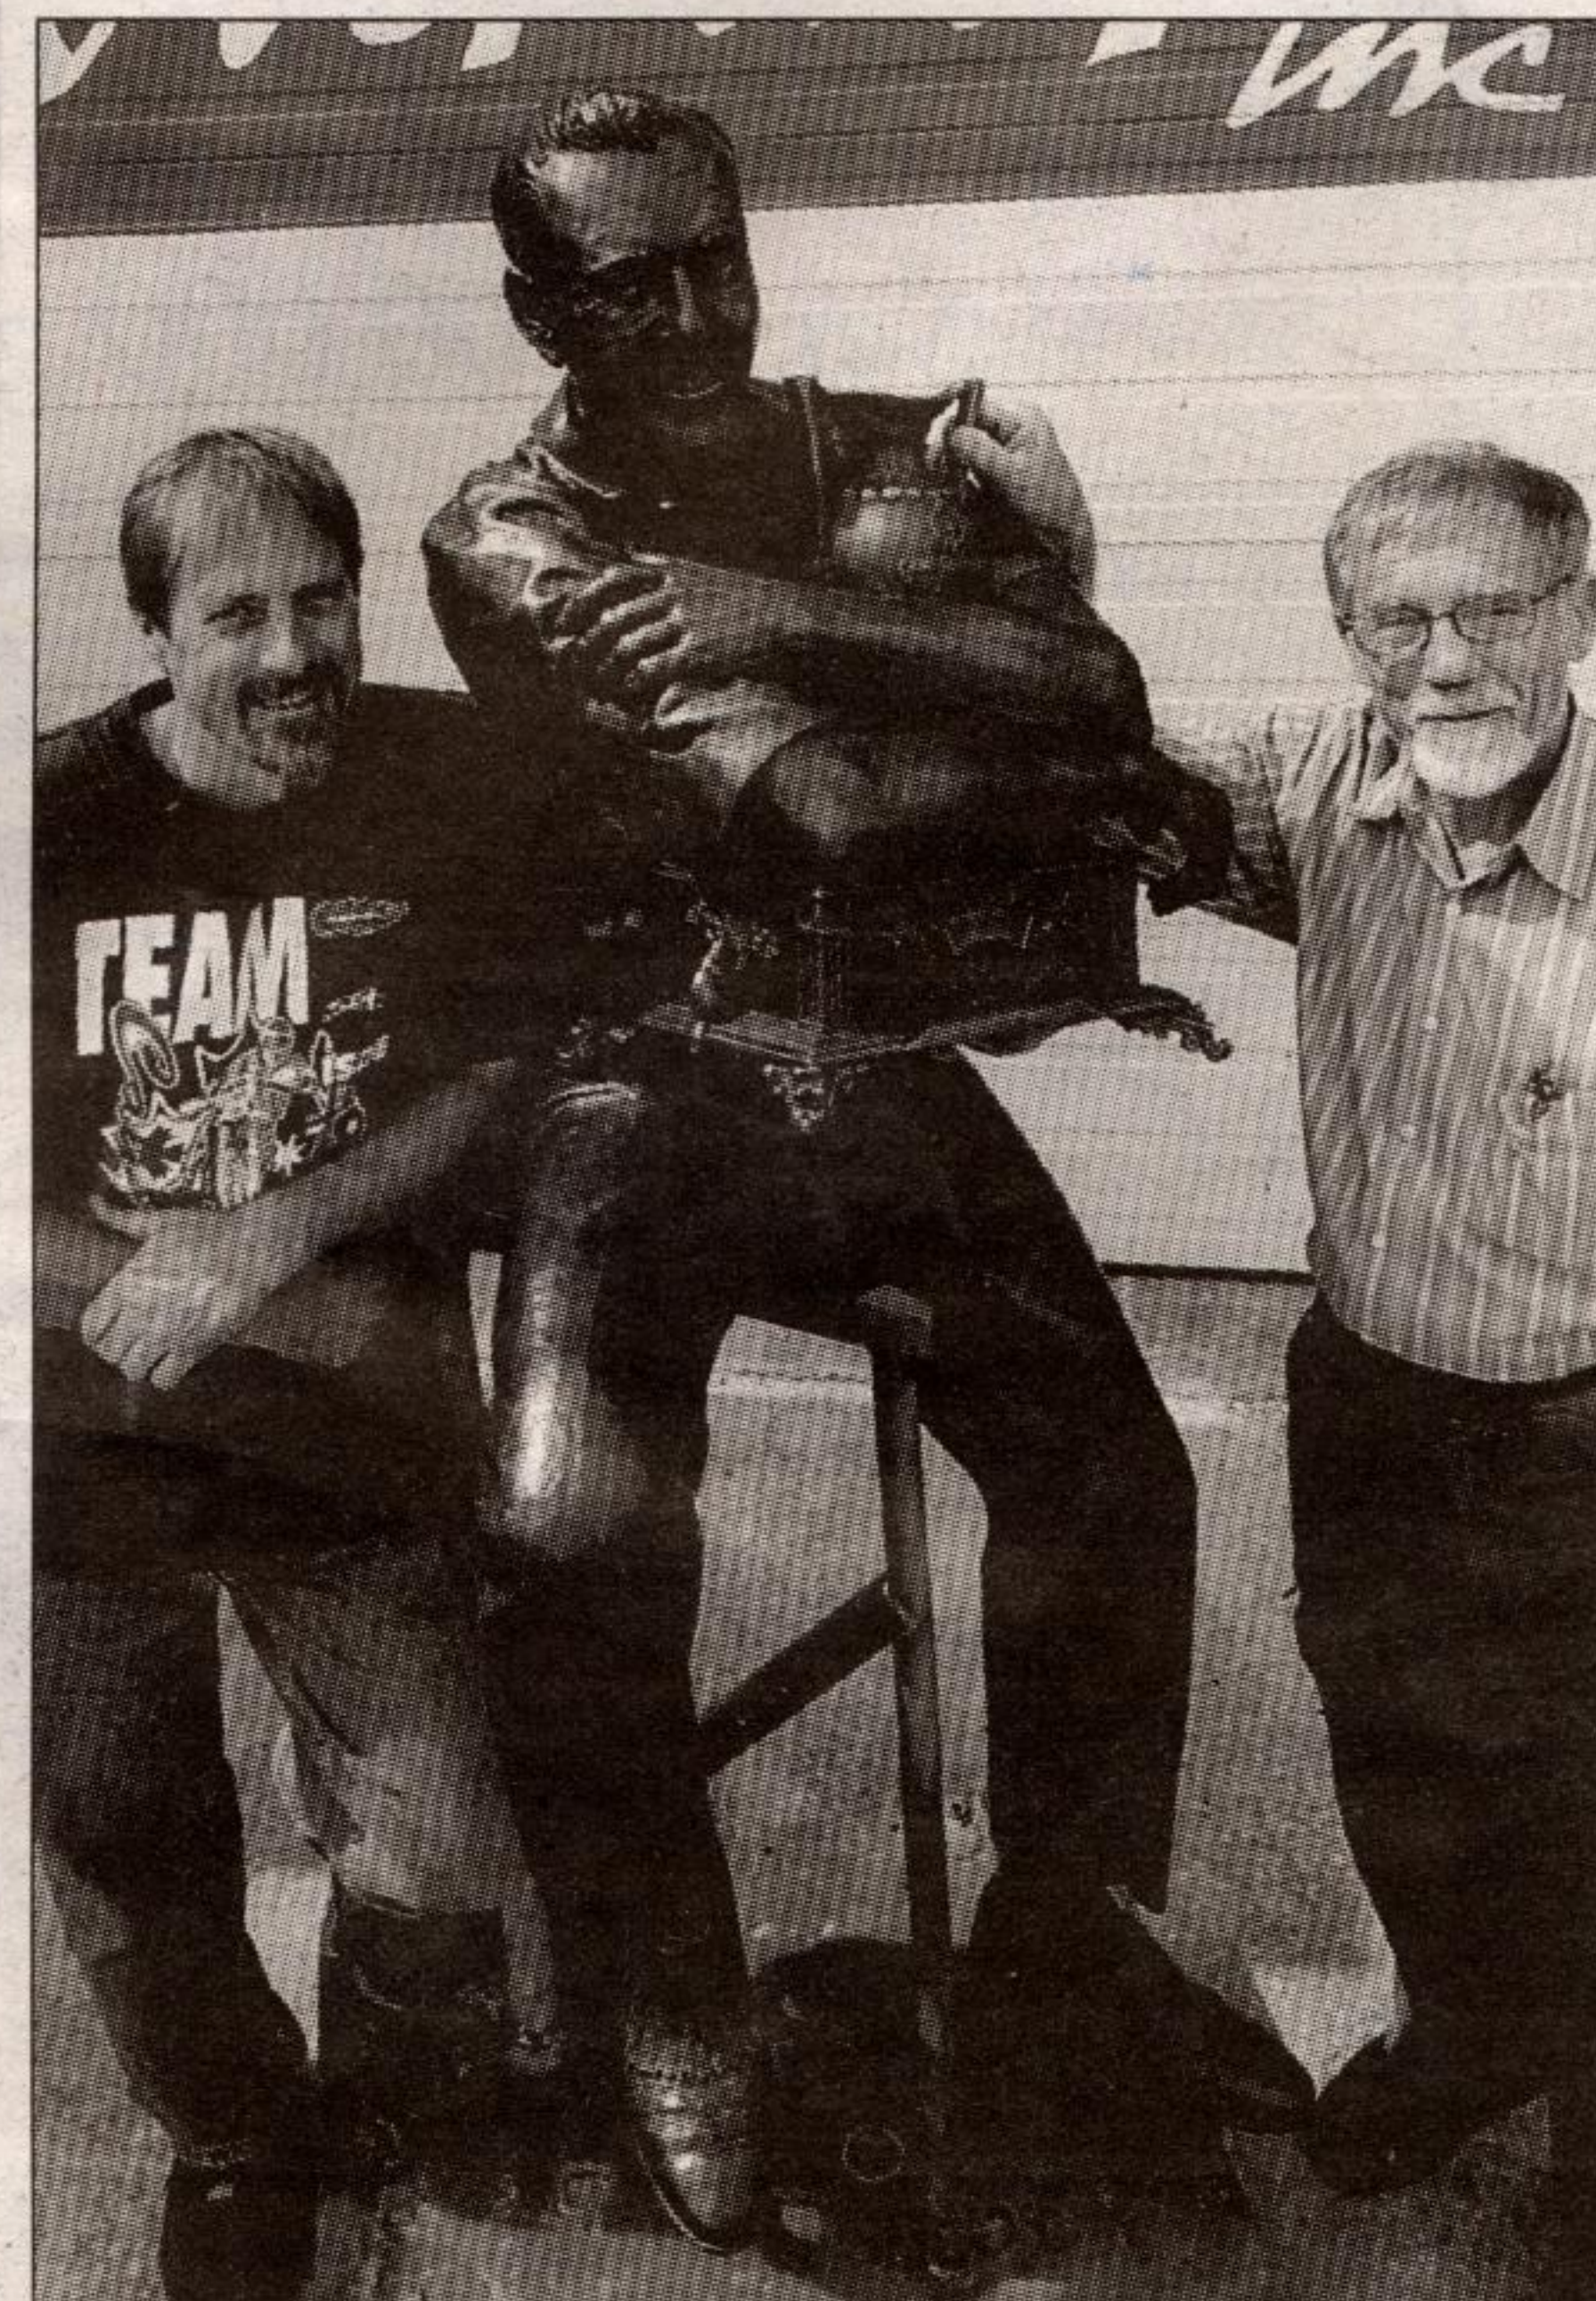

The afternoon gets really busy with the return of Silver Elvis, horseshoe pitching, baby show, miniature horse show, highway truck pull, and lawn and garden tractor pull.

Entertainment on Saturday includes Irv Cass—the 1999 International champion Elvis impersonator, and recently placed second in the famous Collingwood 2005 Elvis Festival.

On Sunday, gates open again at 8 a.m. with a busy horse and cattle show schedule. At 11:30 a.m. listen as youngsters vie to become the Voice of the Fair and at noon, the Three-Legged Man makes his appearance. The afternoon entertainment includes: 4X4 Truck Pull, Antique Tractor Pull, pet show and the Pedal Tractor Pull.

Admission prices are $7 for adults, youths (13-17) and seniors, $3 for children (5-12) and free for children under age 5. A weekend pass costs $15. Parking is available for $5.

Tickets are available in advance until Friday at local Acton banks: Bank of Nova Scotia, Bank of Montreal, CIBC and Prosperity One.

Arnold makes Georgetown stop

A bronze rendition of Arnold Palmer was seen hanging around Artcast Inc recently as Marcus Knoespel (left) and his dad Eric, checked out the bronze casting before it was shipped to the Weston Golf and Country Club, where it was erected to commemorate the 50th anniversary of Palmer's first Canadian Open win, September 12, 1955. Sculpted by Ruth Abernathy, the project is life-sized and was unveiled by Palmer at a reception at the golf course, Monday.
