

Fun at the fair

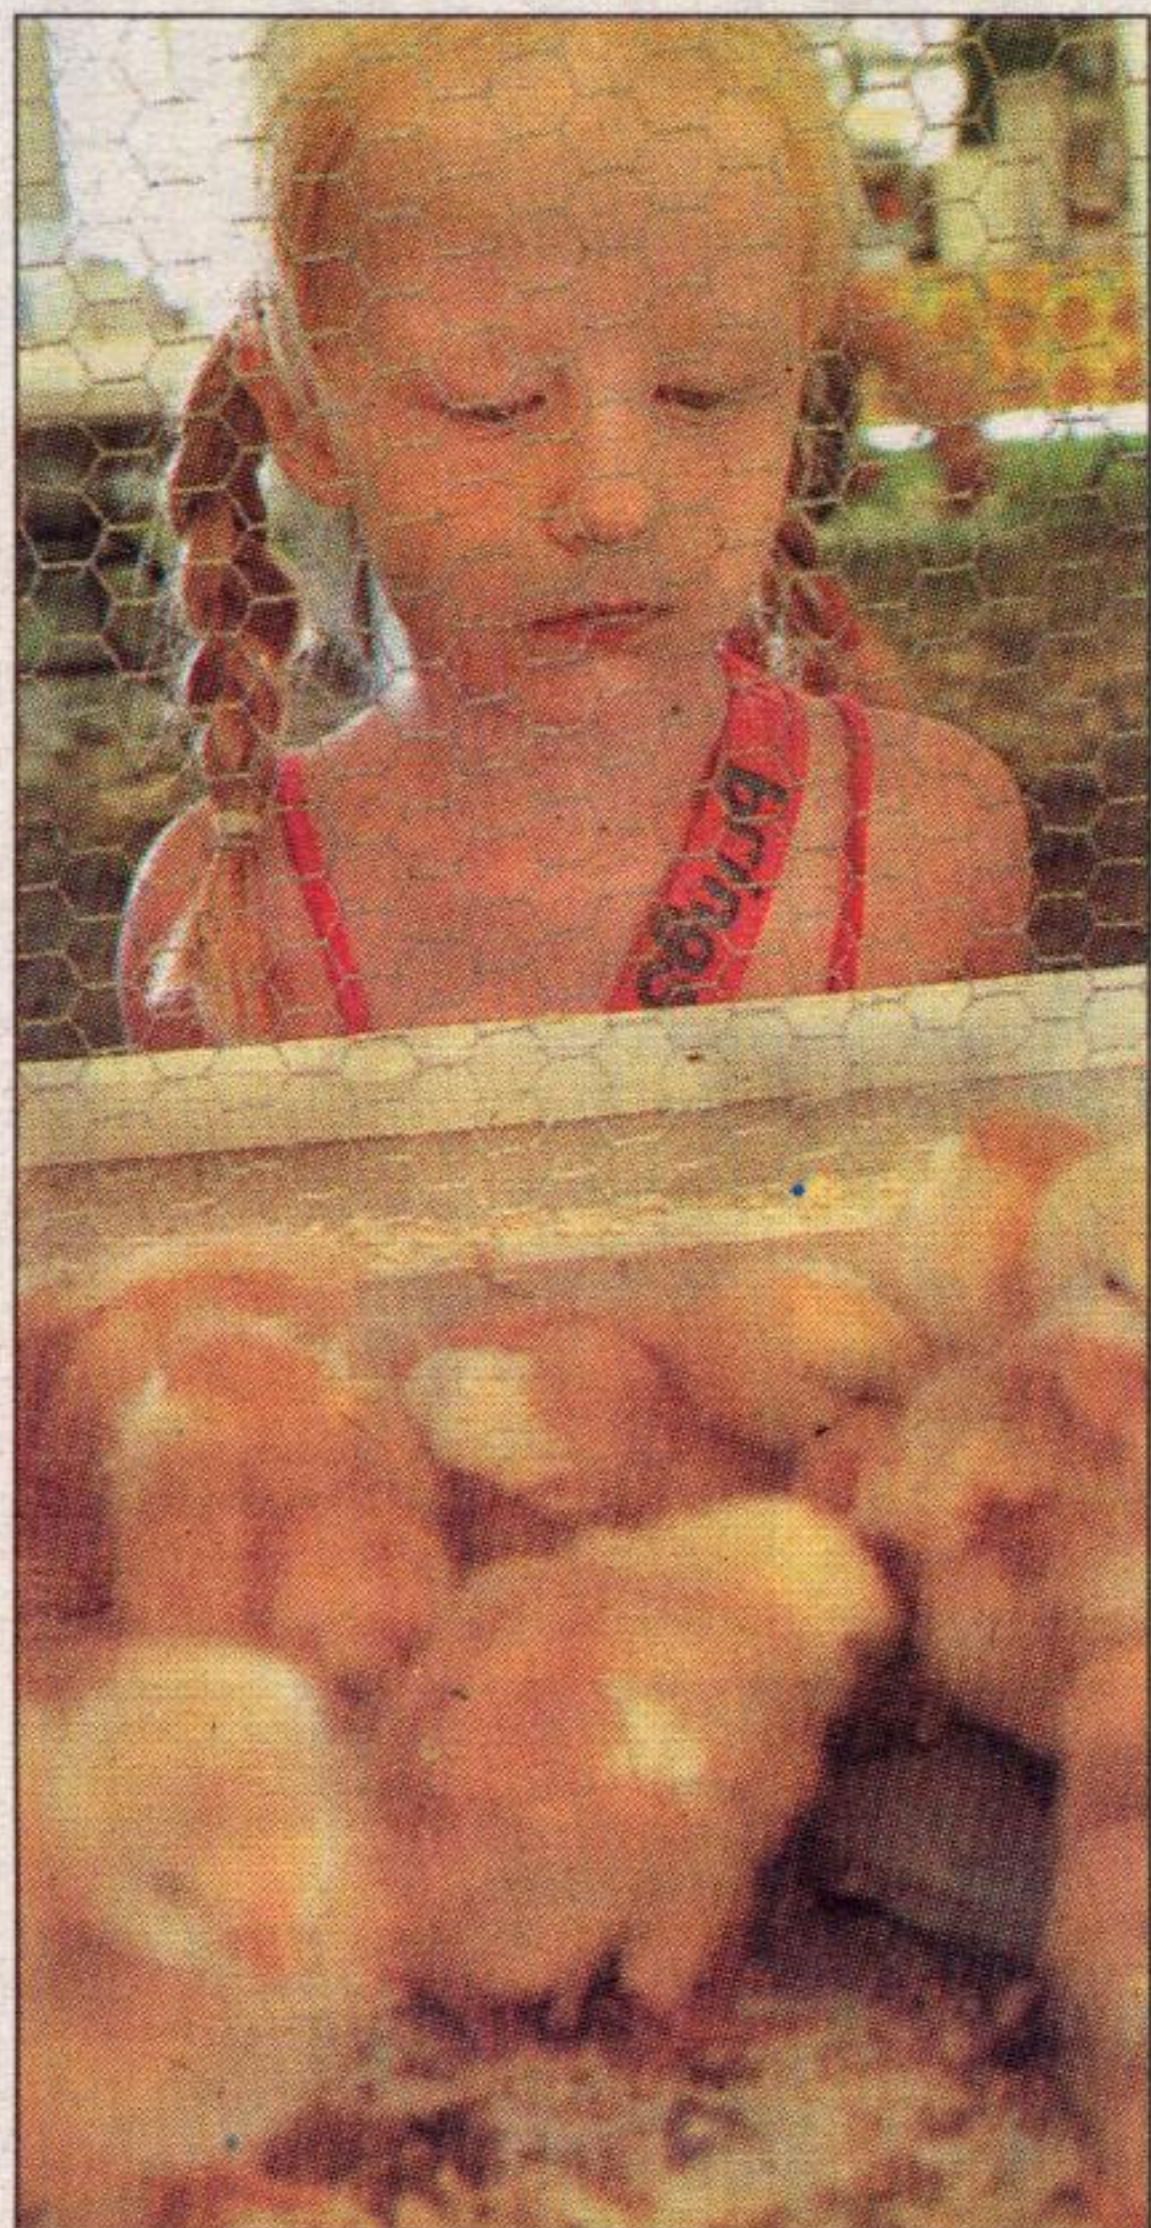

Hanging out his tongue helped four-year-old Dean Veneruz of Georgetown during the kiddie pedal pull.

Eighteen-year-old Candace Christie of Terra Cotta was chosen Fair Ambassador Friday night and her new duties including checking out her brother's calf.

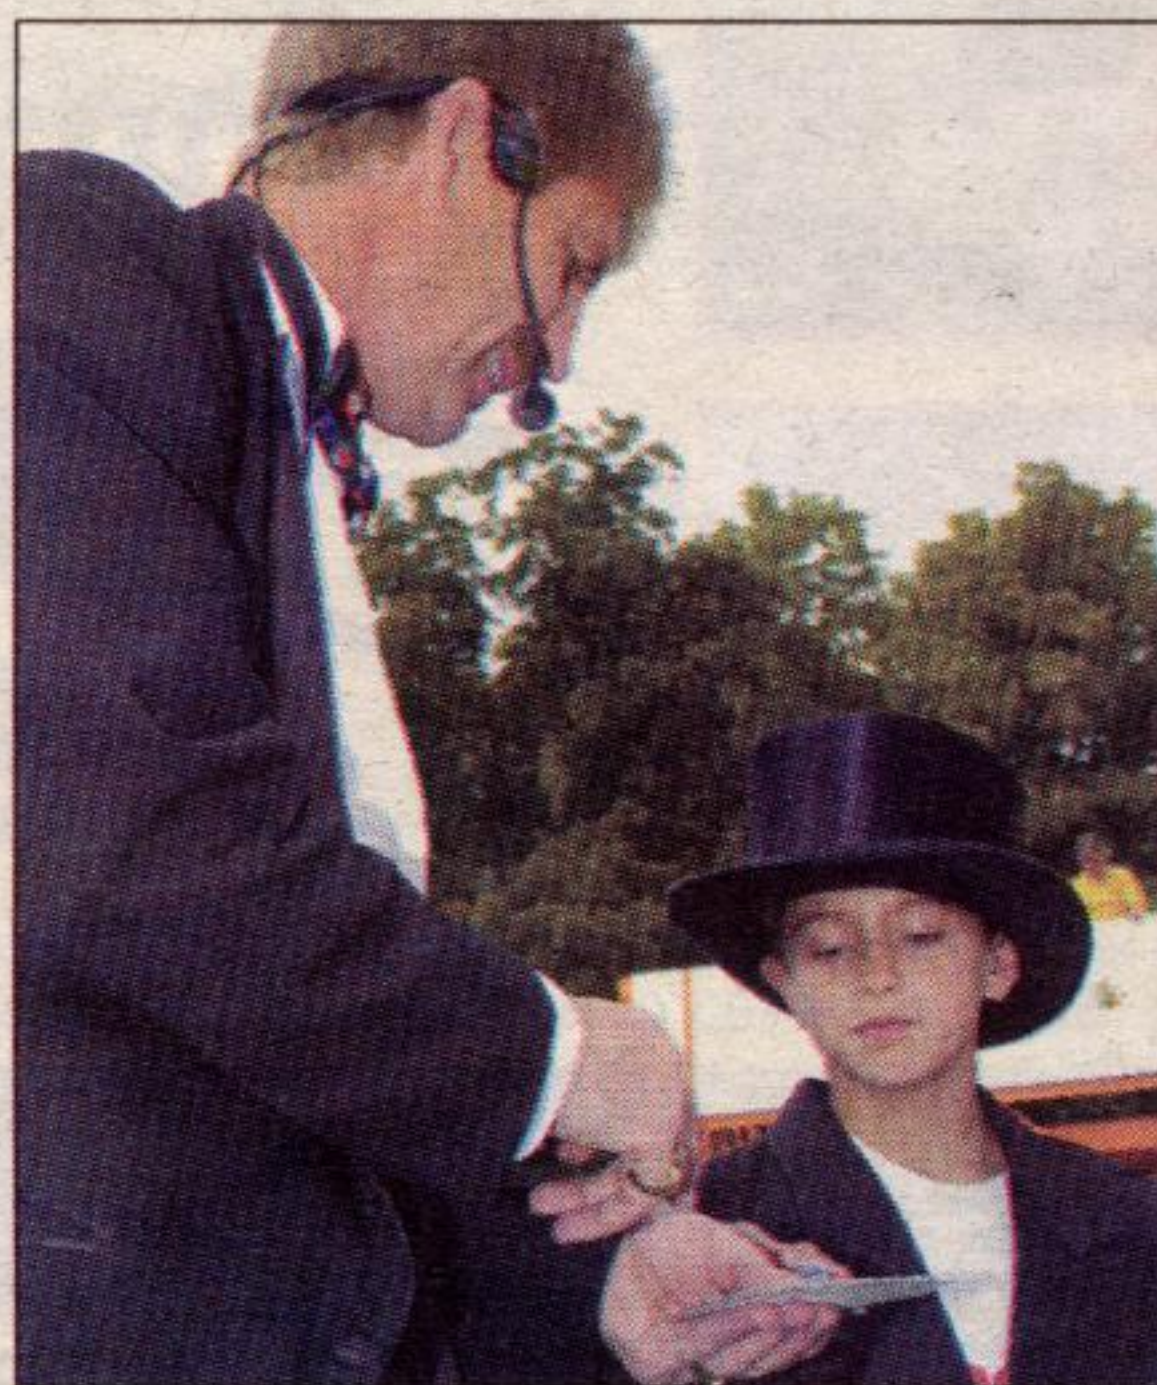

Wheeeee! Lindsie Anderson, 11, and Rachel Longwell, 12, of Georgetown have a thrilling ride on the Midway.

Jacqueline Walker, 5, of Georgetown takes a gander at the little chicks.

Photos by
Yves Desjardins

Pick a card Jesse. Barney the Magician (Rob Barnun) called for the assistance of nine-year-old Jesse Bydevaate of Acton to participate in his tricks on stage.

Elizabeth Kirby, 17, of Acton, helps four-year-old Brenna Lediard of Limehouse blow bubbles in the bubble blowing contest.