

Kittens with special needs are still looking for a home

The Upper Credit Humane Society is looking for a good home for two kittens with special needs.

Flippy and Floppie, brother and sister, are 14-weeks-old and both have a neurological dysfunction in their hind legs, which causes them to sometimes be a little unsteady on their back feet.

However, both cats are otherwise healthy, active kittens. They are both litter-trained and get along well with the cat, dog and children in their current foster home.

The Society says the two need to go to the same home, must be indoor cats, and never be declawed.

Anyone interested in adopting the kittens should contact the humane society at 519-833-2287.
