Classic cheques

At the Boston Pizza Cruisers cruise night recently, Classics Against Cancer co-chairs Dan Wagstaff and Al Goldfinch presented Hungry Hollow Hooters team members with a cheque for $8,500 for their contributions to the Classics Against Cancer car show Father's Day in Cedarvale Park. The Hungry Hollow Hooters team once again took part in the Weekend to End Breast Cancer in Toronto last weekend. On hand for the presentation were, from left, Hungry Hollow Hooters team members Martha Quinn, Jeannine Farrar, Joanne Daquano, Classics co-chairs Dan Wagstaff and Al Goldfinch, and team members Sharon Gresswell, Donna Simonsen, Doris Johnstone and Janice Timmins.

Fitness fans

Judith Thompson demonstrated a new fitness movement called NIA in a special free class at the Halton Hills Cultural Centre on Saturday. Thompson also donated a book about it to the Halton Hills public library.

Get active by volunteering for recreation programs

Town of Halton Hills Recreation and Parks Department is gearing up for the fall session and volunteers are still needed to aid in the delivery of programs. Volunteer opportunities include: swimming lessons at the Georgetown Indoor Pool, Gellert Community Centre and Acton Indoor Pool, Learn To Skate Program, Slam Dunk Basketball League and various other activities.

Aquatic volunteers must be 13 years of age and have completed the Swimmer 6 level (or formerly Aqua Quest 12). All other volunteers must be 14 years of age. Volunteers must submit a police records check and all volunteers will receive training.

For volunteer application forms or more information, please contact the volunteer co-ordinator at 905-873-2601 ext. 2259 or e-mail volunteer@haltonhills.ca
