Dublin Women's Institute re-starts season

The August meeting of Dublin Women's Institute was held at the RR4 Acton home of Ann McCarron with her daughter, Teresa Stoke acting as a co-hostess. The theme of the meeting was education and the roll call of "Something I remember from on my way to school" was answered by 15 members and two guests and provided a very entertaining start to the evening. A poem, The First Day of School was read by Jane Baynton.

Jennifer Cardwell, a teacher with the Peel Board of Education, was our speaker and gave us an insight into how a program is promoted through a school year and incorporated into the curriculum.

Maisie Lasby reported that several of our members went on the Wellington/Halton bus trip to Goderich, followed by a visit to the theatre at Grand Bend, where everyone enjoyed the very lively performance of Twist and Shout (The British Invasion). The day concluded with dinner in Millbank.

Sharon Anderson, our president, presented three members: Jane Baynton, Marion Diamond and Ruth Kranendonk with life membership certificates and pins.

Everyone was reminded of the upcoming Area Convention to be held in Atwood on Oct. 25.

The meeting concluded with a very enjoyable luncheon provided by Ann and her daughter.

The Gathering donates to hospital

The Gathering Community Church donated $549.42 to the Georgetown Hospital. The money was raised at the Georgetown Fair.

The church paid for a 30-foot rock climbing wall at the fair and visitors were given the opportunity to climb the wall for free with a voluntary donations going to the hospital.
