goals with assists going to Pascale Colangelo, Sydney Ranson, Amanda Sipos, Jenna McKenzie and Lyndsay Wright. Meaghan Buckingham earned the shutout.

After falling 2-0 to Barrie the Eagles played to a scoreless draw with East Gwillimbury.

Mallory Gratton scored twice in a 5-1 victory over Caledon that sent the Eagles to the final. Claire Dickson opened the scoring with an early goal and Cutting and McCracken added goals. Sipos, McCracken, Cutting, Mckenzie and Sydney Ranson drew assists.

In the final, McCracken scored the lone Eagle goal, set up by Gratton.

Boys Under-14

Justin Costa and Erik van Wissen each scored twice to lead the Georgetown van Wissen Garden Centre Boys Under-14 Mustangs to a 5-1 win over Mississauga.

Rourke Bannerman-Maxwell also scored for Georgetown while Dirk van Soelen and David Platzer turned in strong defensive games. The victory ended a five-game winless streak for the Mustangs. Connor MacAlpine scored as the Mustangs tied Orangeville 1-1 and van Wissen had the lone Mustang goal in a 2-1 loss to Mississauga. Goals were hard to come by in a stretch of games against the top three teams in the league. Georgetown was edged 1-0 by league-leading Welland, fell 1-0 to Clarkson and lost 2-0 to Brampton.

Lapointe adds four-ball title to collection

Mary Ann Lapointe of North Halton Golf and Country Club added another title to her credit as she teamed with Ivy Steinberg of Cedar Valley to win the Golf Association of Ontario's Women's Four-Ball Championship.

Lapointe and Steinberg, who both played at the U.S. Mid-Amateur, each had three birdies while combining for just three bogeys to finish with a round of 69 at Settlers' Ghost Golf Club in Barrie. Susan Wickware and Judith Allan-Kyrinis were just one shot back with a two-under 70.

"We played well together," said Lapointe, who last week became just the sixth Canadian to win a U.S. amateur title. "When one of us found ourselves struggling, the other picked up their game."

North Halton's Gloria Sinclair and Jeanne Beath finished fifth with a two-over 74 and Rosemary Wysocki of North Halton teamed with Jennifer Lavis to finish 10th in the field of 30 teams with a round of 79.
