Nashville Night to support church

Country music is coming to Hillsburgh Sept. 24 when Century Church Theatre presents Nashville Night at the Century.

Elvis will be there in the person of Rev. Jacob Birch. Other soloists include Hillsburgh guitarist Dale Nolan, Erin vocalist Bonnie Rabson and Acton guitarist and singer Jennifer Mitchell.

Also appearing will be groups, Kountry Kids, the Muir Family Band and Shanda Gibson Youth Players (a fiddle and dance group). The show, produced by Rick McLarnon, is a fund-raiser for the Hillsburgh Community Christian Church building fund.

Tickets are $15, plus ticket handling charge. All seats are reserved and can be booked by calling the Box Office (VISA only), 519-855-4586.

Swap Talk returns

Swap Talk returns to TVCogeco (channel 14) on Wednesday night at its new time of 8 p.m. Edge Goba will be back as the host.

The premise of the show is quite simple. Everyone has something to buy, sell or swap. Give Edge a call live on the air on Wednesday nights at 8 p.m. and advertise whatever you are looking to buy, sell or swap. It's free.

Master dance instructor joins Flamingo Dance Studio

She's worked with Gregory Hines and Whoopi Goldberg, and performed in West Side Story and now dancer Natasha (Nash) Gibson has become the master tap and hip hop instructor at Flamingo Dance Studio in Georgetown.

Gibson has extensive training in tap, jazz, stylized jazz, hip hop, and ballet for more than 25 years.

A graduate of the George Randolph School of The Arts in Toronto, Gibson has worked closely with Randolph, the former director of the Alvin Ailey Company in New York City; Ron Singer, the theatre director at Ryerson University and producer of Bravo Television and Stephanie Gorin, casting director for Beauty and the Beast, Crazy For You, etc.

Gibson has also worked closely with such people as Gregory Hines, Whoopi Goldberg, Liberty Silver, Glass Tiger, Ian Thomas, Tony Vagg, Roxanne Butterfly, Brian Foley and Savion Glover, to name a few.

She has performed in such musicals as West Side Story, and spent two years travelling as an original member of the Next Step Canadian Tap Crew.

Students, trained by Gibson, have gone on to perform with such artists as Aaron Carter, Britney Spears, and Madonna. Her teaching, performance, choreography, and adjudicating skills have placed her in demand all over the world as far east as Bosnia, and as far north as the Arctic Circle.

Some performance credits are Rogers Televised New Year's Eve Show 2005, Tribute Show for Gregory Hines, Mercedes Convention Show, Raptors Half-time Show, Broadway Review Tour, music videos for Kennie Starr, Ian Thomas, and the Winter Olympics, choreographer for Miss Teen Dance of Canada Pageant, opening show for April Wine and Summer Jazz Festival.

She has taught master classes in tap, hip hop, and jazz at workshops including Brian Foley workshops. Gibson was also an adjudicator at 5-6-7-8 Showtime Competition, CDA Competition, Candance competition, and many more.

"Nash will be heading up our tap program, teaching hip hop and some of our competitive team this year," said Flamingo Dance Studio owner Dorri Bland. "Flamingo Dance Studio, staff and students extend a warm welcome to Nash! Here's to an exciting year!"

WAL-MART CANADA SAFETY NOTICE GARDEN TRENDS CHAIRS

Wal-Mart Canada has issued a voluntary safety notice on three different chairs sold at Wal-Mart stores in Canada between March 1 and August 5, 2005.

The chairs (pictured) were sold under the Garden Trends brand name, at prices ranging from $9.97 to $49.97. The chairs include upright and lounge models and colours include tones of orange, white, blue, green/grey, and various mixed stripes.

Each item bears one of the following three UPC product numbers located on a product tag: 0004766938392; 0082342012433; or 0004766902145.

These chairs pose a potential hazard from structural or hinge malfunction. Wal-Mart Canada has removed the affected chairs from its Canadian stores and shelves and asks customers to return them to their local Wal-Mart Canada store for a full refund.

Wal-Mart Canada has issued this notice as a precaution in the interest of consumer safety.
