but their field goal attempt into the wind came up short. That gave Aldershot one last drive to tie the game.

The Lions earned a pair of first downs but the Jaguars' Andrew White picked off a pass in the final minute to seal the victory.

Christ the King threatened in the opening quarter but were stopped on a third-and-two at the Aldershot 15. The Jaguars would open the scoring in the second half when Dezan hit Vetro with a pass up the middle for a 45-yard TD.

Christ the King opened the season with a 20-8 victory over the Pearson Patriots.

Senior Football

Mike Brown scored two touchdowns to lead the Georgetown Rebels to their second straight win, a convincing 36-2 victory over the Pearson Patriots. J.D. Hartnagle and Jordan Ralph also had touchdowns and Spencer Troop blocked a punt and ran it back 15 yards for a major.
