

Georgetown Seniors Centre hosts flu shot clinic

On Tuesday, Oct. 4, Flo Carswell and her group provided a great lunch of Caesar salad and vegetable lasagne, followed by dessert. The Seniors Band provided music before and after lunch.

Watch for the date and sign up for the November Remembrance luncheon.

An important reminder about the flu shot. Mark on your busy calendar that you can get your shot (I mean 'flu') free at our Seniors Centre on Oct. 18, 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. I encourage you to do so. With all the crazy things going around in the world today, we need to protect ourselves as much as possible. Besides it doesn't really hurt.

There was a good response to the Halton Good Food Box program. Eighteen orders were paid for and are due for pick up on October 18.

I had a couple of people tell me that they did not order because they have no way of getting it home. I talked to Alice Wilson (in charge of the program at the centre) and Adriana. If you tell Alice when you order, some arrangements will be made the pickup day to assist you to get it home. Don't let that be an excuse not to get involved in eating healthy at a very good cost. The next order date for the Good Food Box is November 4 with pickup Nov. 15. A small box is $12 and a larger box is $15.

Now that fall is here and we are not out as much, keep in mind that idle hands get into trouble. The Georgetown District Seniors Christmas Bazaar is coming up on Saturday, Nov. 5. Put yourself to work to make some things to sell at the bazaar like crafts, jams, jellies, pickles, relishes and candies. Of course, they will need baked goods and good items for the penny sale. Let's all try to pitch in. The bazaar is a good fund-raiser for the centre.

If Wednesday afternoons are free, perhaps you would be interested in playing euchre. Come for some fellowship over cards. Lorne and Bernie would like to see an increase in the number of tables.

Come get involved! Make new friends! Share in good times!
