Winning talent

The Georgetown Fair winners of the Talent Show were Nicole Gosse of the Hee Haw Band and Chantelle Tanguay from Stewarttown School. Nicole won the microwave/toaster donated by Bulldog Appliance and Chantelle won the $300 gift basket donated by Betty-Ann Whipp of Avon. There were over $2,500 in prizes given away over the weekend. If you would like to be part of the Talent Show next year you can start practising now to be part of the fun in 2006. Musician Neil Cotton performs in charity show

Georgetown musician Neil Cotton and Joey Ace are special guests of Steve Ketchen & The Kensington Hillbillies at a special charity event at York University on Sunday, Oct. 23. The show, a benefit for the Food Bank, starts at 3:30 p.m. upstairs at the Blade, at the Ice Gardens Arena on the university campus (off Steeles Ave., just east of Jane St.). Cotton's song Give Half The Song to Me is on the charts at That's Country Live, www.cancountry.com

Cool or Clueless?

Is there really any question?

There's no doubt about it: smoking pollutes your body and takes years off your life. Cigarettes are very addictive, very expensive and very unpleasant for those around you. If you do smoke and have thought about quitting, prove to yourself you can do it. It takes a lot of hard work and dedication, but you can live smoke-free if you try.
