Jags win playoff preview

Dan Rovere ran for a 60-yard touchdown, his second major of the game, as the Christ the King Jaguars defeated St. Thomas Aquinas 23-20 in a preview of next week's Halton junior football playoff game.

Christ the King (3-3) looked to be on its way to an easy victory as it built a 13-0 lead on TDs by Rovere and Jack Matthews in the first half. However, St. Thomas came back with three straight touchdowns in the second half, adding a two-point convert on the second TD, to take a 20-13 lead.

With less than three minutes to play, Rovere took the handoff on a reverse, raced the width of the field before turning up the sideline and outracing the St. Thomas defenders. The touchdown presented a tough call for the Jaguars—kick the convert to tie the game or go for the two-pointer and the win. With muddy field conditions that had caused problems on St. Thomas' convert attempts, the Jags elected for the two-point convert.

With the win on the line, Jordan Uy caught a screen pass and scrambled to dive across the goal line, giving the Jags a 21-20 lead.

The Jags defence then solidified the victory, pinning St. Thomas deep in its own end on the kickoff and then twice dropping their opponents for a loss to set up a safety when the St. Thomas quarterback fumbled the snap.

Christ the King hosts St. Thomas Aquinas at 2 p.m. Monday. Down the street the Georgetown Rebels (4-1) host the Bishop Reding Royals, also a 2 p.m. start on Monday.
