CORRECTION FOR ONTARIO HONDA DEALERS ASSOCIATION

In the promotional newspaper insert entitled 'WOW', currently being distributed on behalf of the Ontario Honda Dealers Association, the following errors have occurred:

- a) the Honda Element is not equipped with Vehicle Stability Assist™ (VSA®);
- b) all 2006 Elements include Anti-Lock Brakes (ABS). This feature is "new for 2006" on Element models (YH1726PL/YH1826PL);
- c) the Honda Pilot and Ridgeline vehicles depicted as LX models are, in fact, EX models.

The Ontario Honda Dealers Association apologizes for any inconvenience these errors may have caused.

Stick with your high blood pressure treatment, or you may be in for a nasty surprise.
