Church youth learn about Remembrance from those who were there

The youth group, ages 9-13, of Norval Presbyterian Church, recently learned about the importance of Remembrance. Here is nine-year-old Susannah McKenzie-Sutter's account of the day.

On Monday night, Oct. 24, the junior youth group went to the Armouries, which is a place with a few displays on war and remembrance. We had a guest speaker named John Colter. He was a peacekeeper. He talked about how the First World War began and about some of the people. He had a chart about who entered the war and who died. But one of the main subjects was Remembrance.

After that speaker we picked up Peggy Dallimore and took her to our church. She was in the Women's Air Force. She had a lot of good stories to tell. And lots of good pictures. One of the things that I thought was pretty interesting was when she told us that wherever you went you had to bring your gas mask. She showed us a picture of people dancing with gas masks on.

Both of the guest speakers I quite enjoyed. I think it is good to hear about people's experiences in the war.

THE "TRY-IN" APPOINTMENT

The "Try-In" appointment is the most interesting stage of denture construction. This is when you get to see exactly what your denture will look like before it's finished. Because the teeth are set in wax, the teeth can be moved or changed to the desired appearance. Some people bring along a close friend or spouse for a second opinion. Only when you are happy with the appearance will the denture be finished. Because this is such an important stage, sometimes a second "Try-in" visit is necessary, if changes are to be made.

Because we make everything from start to finish in our own dental lab, located right on the premises, special attention is given to the types of teeth used, as well as the specific colour and shape that is exactly right for you. The result is a custom-cosmetic denture that we can both be proud of!

You do not need a referral; simply call out office direct.
