

Newest Acton Seniors Centre members treated to tea

The people who joined the Acton Seniors Centre during the past 12 months enjoyed the New Members Tea at the centre last Tuesday.

Many of the board members were there answering questions about the different activities at the centre and trying to make them feel welcome. It was nice to see so many new faces. Some were newcomers to Acton and others longtime residents.

Nov. 15 is the last date to order a Bright Cheese presentation box. It's a great gift idea for the person who is hard to buy for. What could be nicer than a box of assorted cheeses and a bottle of wine? Stop in and pick up a brochure at the centre.

Ruth tells me that the 50/50 draw on the Rama trip was won by Lou Lafrombois, the birthday prize by May Nelson and Yvonne Vander Hayden. Marion Pascoe, Al McPhadden and Merle Carr were seated in the lucky seats. The next trip to Rama will be Wednesday, Nov. 30.

The sheet is already full of people's names eager to go to Rama but you can put your name on the waiting list. Call Ruth, 519-853-5124.

At the bid euchre, Shirley Hunter had the only mooner.

Everyone who attend the Oktoberfest dinner enjoyed themselves, the music provided by Peter Baumann was toe-tapping as usual and I could hear lots of voices singing and clapping to the popular songs he played. I even saw some people dancing in the aisles. Everyone enjoyed the German-style food provided and the Apple Blossoms kindly donated by Chudleigh's.

The lucky prize winners at the dinner were ladies watch, Pat Frizzell; men's watch, Isobel Nicholls; 50/50, Marj MacFarlane and lucky ticket holders, Ruth Burke, Lois Bugala and Loutta Iboniphyn.

The annual Christmas Tea and Bazaar is on Nov. 26, from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. The penny table is already set up so anyone wishing to purchase tickets can do so now, and I understand the large hamper draw tickets will be out soon.

Some people have already picked up their latest newsletter. Hopefully you will find something that interests you. The new session of tai chi has just started and everyone enjoys the exercise that incorporates mind and body. There is some talk of starting paper tole, rug hooking and woodcarving classes. If you would be interested in any of these classes, sign up at the front desk. This latest newsletter also has your membership renewal form included, so you can fill out the details in the comfort of your own home, and bring it, or mail it to the centre with your cheque.

Margaret Neilson tells me they had a good turnout for carpet bowling with nine people playing. She was the captain of the Black team and they beat Marg Harings' Brown team, 18-2. It sounds like the Black team trounced the Brown team, but I know they all had fun. Better luck next week Brown team.

Our sympathy is extended to the family and friends of Kurt Haefner who passed away. He will be missed at the centre. Although he had moved to Georgetown he still enjoyed playing cards here.

Irma Marin was the winner of this week's weekly 50/50 draw. Congratulations Irma.

This may seem like a long way off, but mark your calendars ready. There will be the annual Christmas Light Tour on Thursday, Dec. 22 and this tour is sponsored by the Acton Seniors Recreation Centre and buses are donated by Ted Tyler Transport. Thank you Tyler Transport. Everyone really enjoys this trip and the goodies when they return to the centre. More details later.

I don't know about you but I have to get bigger and bigger squares on my calendar for all the things I need to remember.
