Amnesty International presents A Night of Folk and Blues

Once again, the Amnesty International Group of Halton Hills invites the community to a night of excellent music for an exceptional cause on Saturday, Nov. 19 at 7:30 p.m. in St John's United Church, 11 Guelph St., Georgetown.

A Night of Folk and Blues is Halton Hills Chapter of Amnesty International's annual coffee house to help raise awareness and money to protect individuals and communities around the world whose human rights are under attack.

Kevin Anderson will host this event which will include many talented acts such as Jayne Bell, Marjorie Baillie, and the harmonic duet of Tim and Phillip. Enjoy everything from ragtime blues to folk rock courtesy of Phil Lewin and Riverbend, and a tribute to Gordon Lightfoot by our regular coffee house band, Classic Folk. Stay for our special guest, Jim Miller, whose performance will include a Chet Atkins tribute.

Enjoy a wide array of refreshments such as tea, coffee and cider and enjoy delicious homemade pies and sweets. Admission is $8 for adults, $5 for students and seniors with all proceeds going to support Amnesty International.
