The Independent & Free Press' circulation is Halton Hills only community newspaper audited by the Canadian Circulations Audit Board.

A Halton Regional Police officer climbs through a broken window at The Shepherd's Crook pub on Main Street in downtown Georgetown moments after a deer smashed through the window Saturday afternoon. The injured deer (left) was humanely destroyed by officers.

Whatever business or service you have, The Independent & Free Press can help you reach over 48,000 potential customers in one day either on Wednesdays or Fridays. And we can prove it! The Independent & Free Press is the only community newspaper in Halton Hills that is audited by the Canadian Circulations Audit Board. No one else in our area can make that claim.

Hills residents read the Independent & Free Press! There is only one question to ask...
