

Knives pulled on clerk Two sought in armed gas bar hold-up

Halton Police are looking for two men in connection with an armed robbery at a Hornby gas station Wednesday night.

At approximately 8:15 p.m. two men brandishing knives walked into the Canadian Gas Bar on Hornby Rd. and demanded cash from the male clerk.

A quantity of cash was handed over, and the men fled on foot.

Halton Police officers and the canine unit responded, searched the area, but could not find the men.

One suspect is described as black, 5'8", 140 lbs., 18 to 19 years old. He was wearing black clothing including gloves, a black bandana covering his face and was carrying a knife.

The second man was West

Indian, 6', 150 lbs., 18 to 19 years old. He was wearing a black suede jacket with the hood up, black baggy jeans, black gloves and a black bandana covering his face. He was carrying a machete.

Firefighters called out to Acton to extinguish small garage blaze

Halton Hills firefighters were called to a Kingsley Rd. Acton home last Friday evening for a reported garage fire.

When they arrived smoke was visible and they quickly extinguished a small fire in the loft area of the garage.

The cause of the fire is under investigation by Halton Hills Fire Protection and Prevention Services.
