OP changes pave way for Ninth Line transit line

Years of hard work and public consultation culminated Wednesday with Halton council's approval of Regional Official Plan amendment 28, which will make way for a future inter-regional transit line along the Ninth Line, south of Steeles Avenue.

The change is designed to safeguard the property base needed to create the transit line in the corridor framed by highways 401, 403, 407 and the Ninth Line, abutting the City of Mississauga.

The line could be a road designated for buses and emergency vehicles running parallel to Hwy. 407.

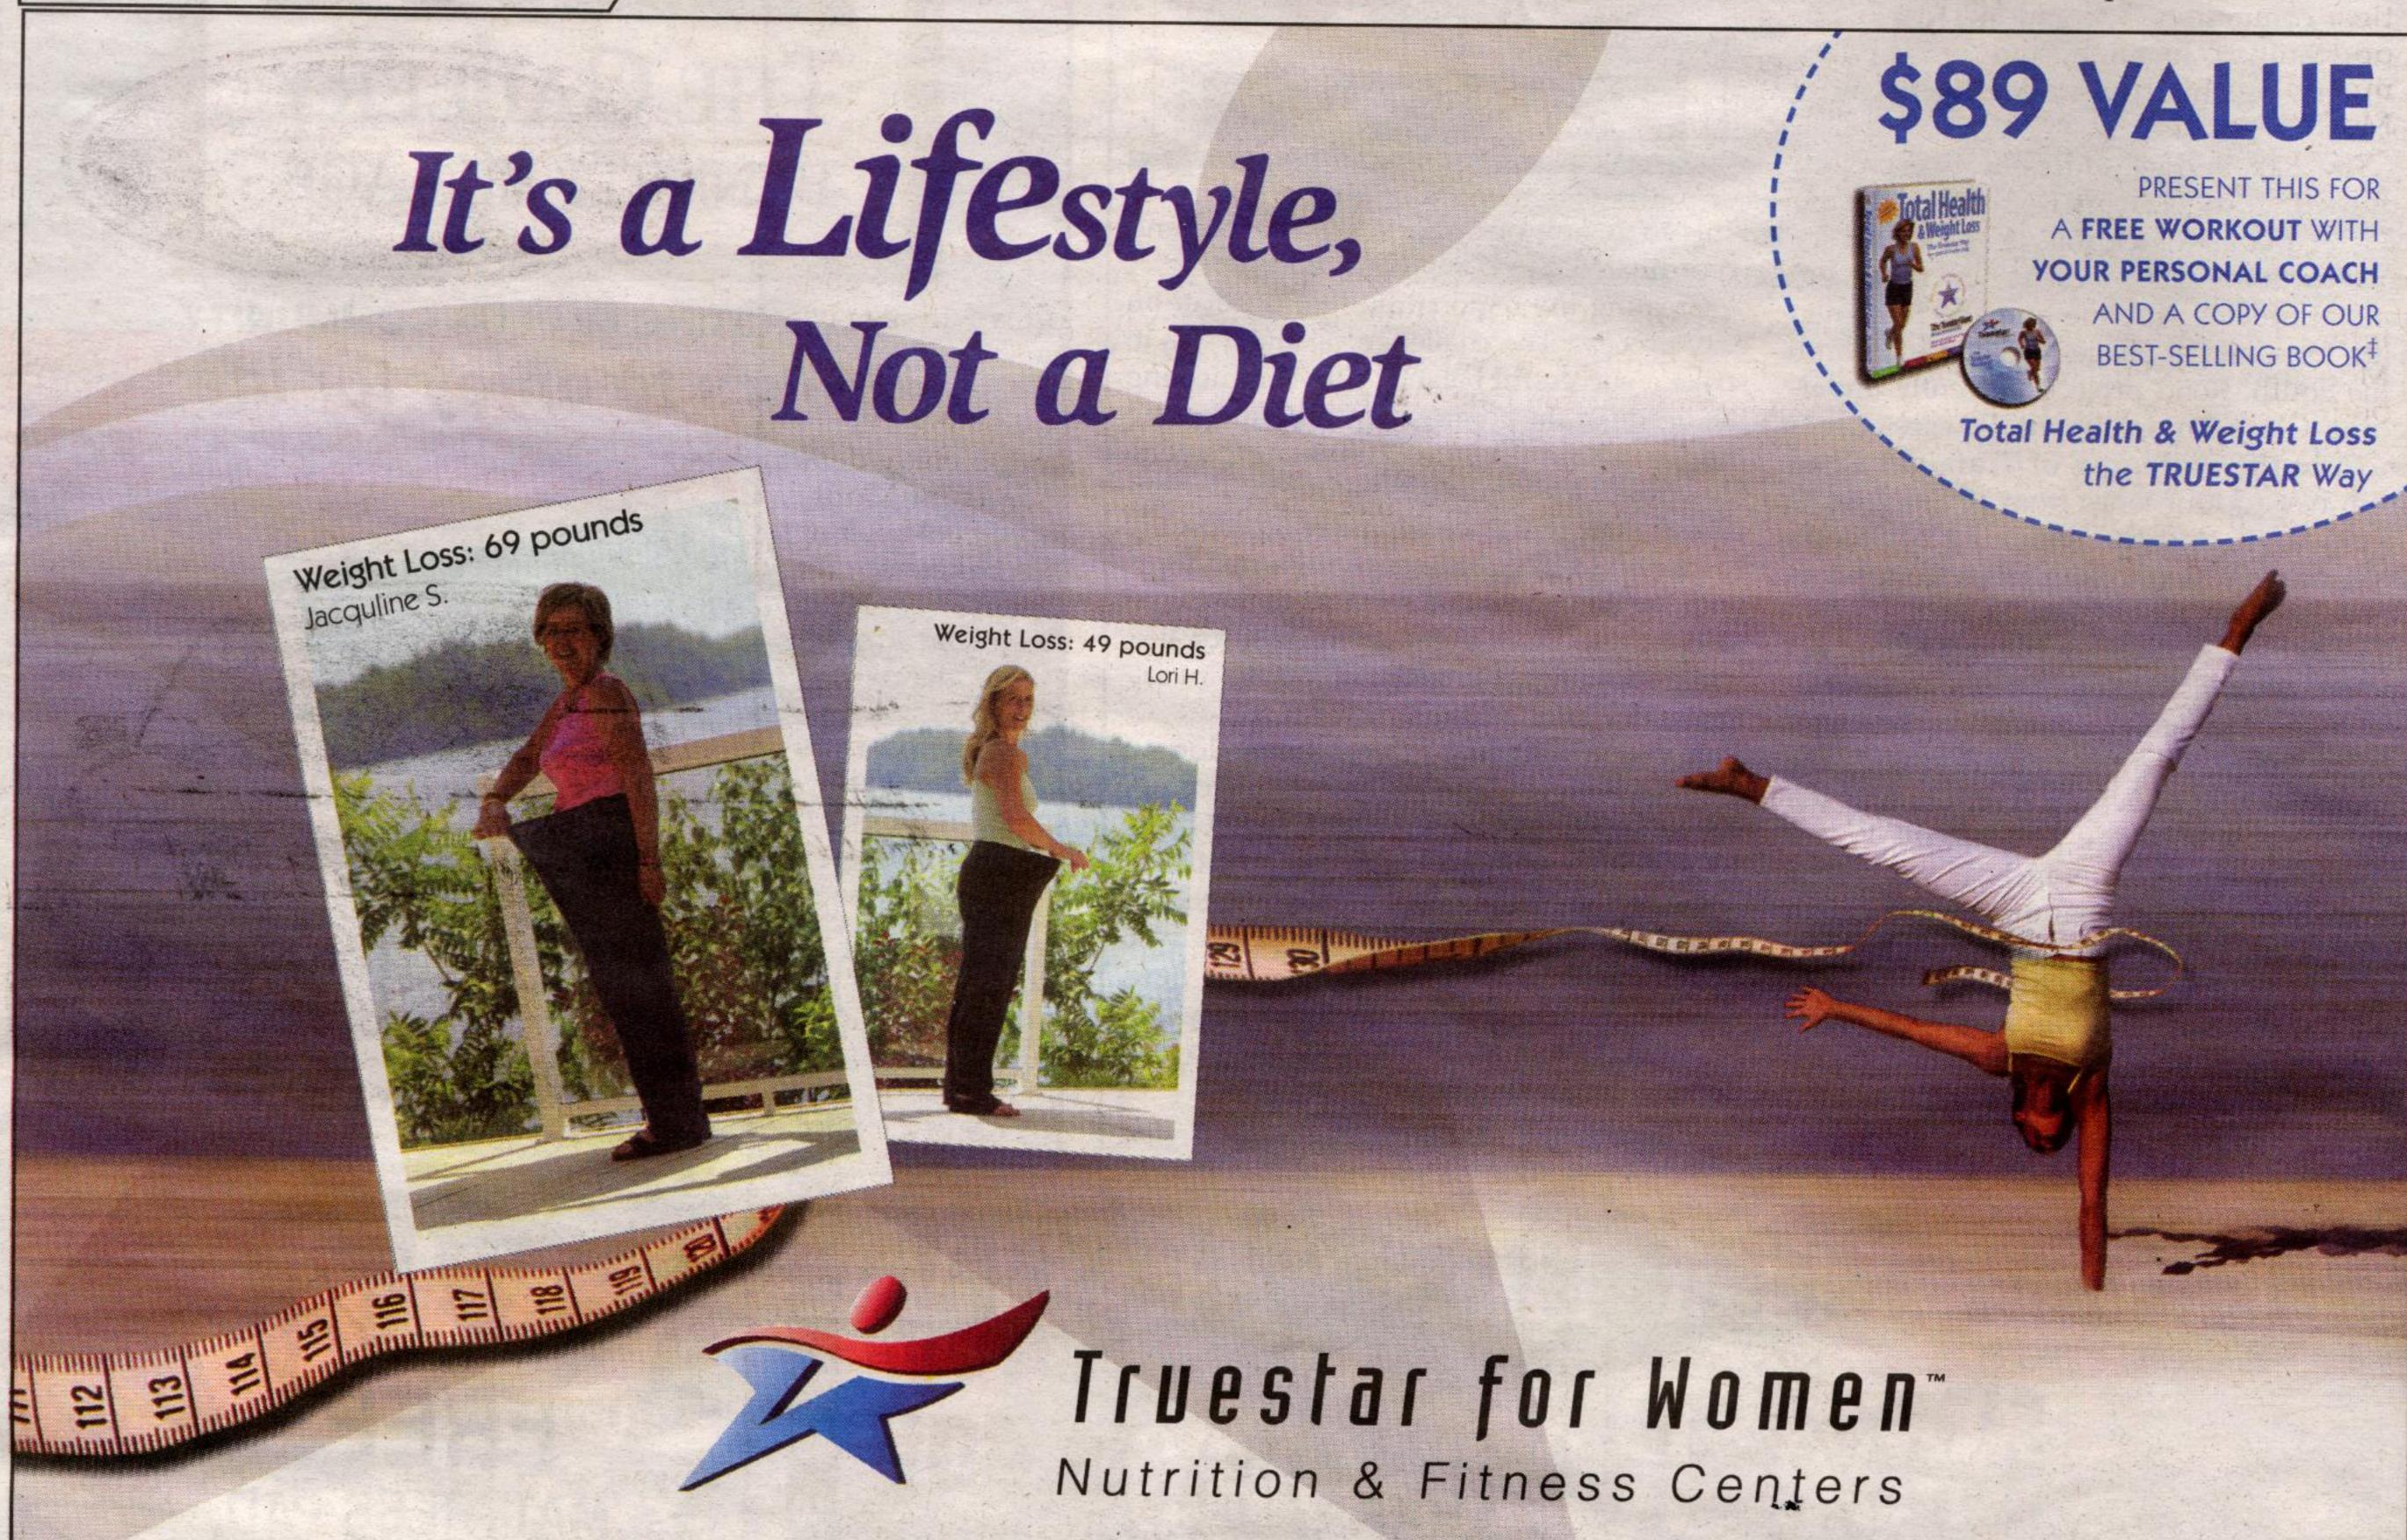

Proposed transit stations through the corridor have also been identified— at Britannia Road, with 400 parking spots and six bus bays, and Derry Road, with 800 parking spots and five bus bays.

The intermodal/GO Rail station at Highways 401 and 407 would have 2,000 parking spots and five bus bays.

The next step is for Town staff to prepare a Milton Official Plan amendment for the area, which is expected to be complete by the end of next year.

The resolution regional council approved Wednesday calls for Halton staff to report back to its members on Milton's amendment before it's adopted.
