It's a 'bazaar' time

Walk the Hills Fall Challenge wraps up

The Town of Halton Hills's Walk the Hills Fall Challenge was a great success, with more than 214,000 minutes logged by families, businesses and schools.

If the average person walks about 5.5km per hour then over the course of the Fall Challenge, Halton Hills residents walked the distance to Beijing, China and back!

Top walkers from the Fall Challenge:

- Adult walker: Ralph S.
- Older adult walker: Heinz R.
- Youth walker: Tylor S

- Family walkers: The Trinca Chics
- Group walkers: Halton Hills Community Support & Information.

Although the Fall Challenge may be over make Active Living part of your life year round. The walking logs are still available on line at www.haltonhills.ca and the progress page will be updated so you can monitor your progress.

Just a reminder: the Warm up Winter Challenge starts January 2006. Details to follow.
