

Georgetown Seniors plan to get the 'joint rocking' during Tree Trimming Party

A full house sat down to a wonderful Remembrance luncheon on Tuesday, Nov. 8, served up by Eleanor Murphy and her lunch team. Great job ladies!

Before lunch, veterans, or their widows, in attendance were recognized by the diners followed by two minutes silence and the singing of O'Canada. Mayor Rick Bonnette brought greetings from the Town.

Shell Lawr recalled some of his memories as a soldier in the Second World War. Following lunch we were royally entertained by about 20 members of the Choral Society. I think every toe was tapping to the old wartime songs. It certainly added to a great luncheon.

On Wednesday, Nov. 9, Constable Laurel Barnett spoke at Mingle and Chat on crimeproofing your home. Interest was high and it was well attended. This is part of SALT (Halton Seniors and Law Enforcement Together). They offer many seminars on personal safety, home security, Drive Wise, and abuse of power of attorney. SALT is provided by Halton Regional Police Service and the Ontario Provincial Police.

Many hands and hard work made for a very successful Christmas Bazaar on Saturday, Nov. 6. The bake table especially disappeared in a hurry. Money raised will be used to keep our centre going.

A favourite event for the ladies is fast approaching. That is the Tan Jay Fashion Show on Monday, Nov. 28. It starts at 1:15 p.m. A $5 ticket includes light refreshments. Take some of your Christmas money and treat yourself.

Tuesday, Nov. 29, at 1 p.m., the joint will be rocking at the Tree Trimming Party. Come out and help decorate the Christmas tree or just sit and enjoy the music and drama club while you stuff yourself with goodies— for free!

After Nov. 21, tickets for the Christmas go on sale to non-members. This delicious turkey dinner with all the trimmings will be served up at 12 p.m. on Tuesday, Dec. 13. The cost is $20.

If you are interested in becoming a board member you will need to get your name into John Daley, chairman of the nominating committee. Elections will be at the 2006 general meeting on Tuesday, Feb. 14, at 1:30 p.m.

What a busy place! Come out to the Georgetown

Seniors Centre. Get involved! Make new friends! Share in the good times!
