

Lack of production sinks Jr. A Raiders

Fans of the Georgetown Raiders will find out over the next week whether the Jr. A hockey club finds some much-needed offensive help as the OHA Provincial loop's final roster declarations for 2005-06 must be made by next Tuesday.

That lack of scoring production was exposed again against a quality opponent last week during the annual Newmarket Jr. A Showcase Tournament.

The Raiders dropped a 3-1 decision to the host Hurricanes on Thursday night in the quarter-finals of the 20-team tournament, which drew several U.S.-based teams.

Georgetown outplayed the Hurricanes over most of the final two periods, yet only had defenceman Erik Lundmark's goal to show for it.
