

Raiders continue to tinker with roster

Raider director of player personnel Peter Mavroudis said yesterday (Tuesday) that he has a number of moves in the works for veteran players with major junior experience.

It's expected that 20-year-old sniper Mike Tuomi will join the Raiders in a cash deal with the Bramalea Blues and centre David Jarman was picked up from the Wexford Raiders during the holiday break.

"There are still a couple of other pieces that we'd like to bring into the team and we hope to have them on the ice for this weekend," said Mavroudis.

Newmarket went on to lose in the championship game to the OPJABL's South Conference Vaughan Vipers 5-3.

Coming up this week, the Raiders will host the Brampton Capitals Saturday at the Mold-Masters SportsPlex beginning at 7:30 p.m., followed by a trip to the Steel City on Monday to take on the second-place Hamilton Red Wings.
